

The Supreme Court of Ohio

OPERATING GUIDELINES FOR THE TASK FORCE ON REENTRY

These guidelines are issued by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and apply to the creation, organization, and operation of the Task Force on Reentry to assist the Court in exercising the authority granted pursuant to Article IV of the Ohio Constitution.

These guidelines are intended to establish consistent standards and expectations in implementing this authority. While these guidelines may impose specific duties upon other persons, the Chief Justice may waive compliance with any guidelines to assist the exercise of that authority.

These guidelines have not been adopted as rules pursuant to Article IV, Section 5 of the Ohio Constitution and should not be construed as requiring adoption.

SECTION 1. GENERAL GUIDELINES.

1.01. Creation.

There is hereby created by the Chief Justice the Task Force on Reentry.

1.02. Duties and Authority.

(A) Duties

The task force shall analyze and recommend improvements to promote the successful transition of incarcerated persons from Ohio local and county prisons and jails back into the community under court supervision. In fulfilling these duties, the task force shall offer recommendations on all of the following:

- (1) Analyze the reentry population, including both prison and jail, and their needs;
- (2) Examine the services provided to reentry populations, jail, prisons, and community based correctional facilities;
- (3) Survey judges, law enforcement, prosecutors, and public defenders on their experiences with reentry services;
- (4) Identify promising practices for courts and stakeholders in Ohio and nationally on reentry;
- (5) Identify court experiences with reentry practices in Ohio;

- (6) Identify funding streams for promising practices;
- (7) Identify challenges to expanding certified reentry specialized dockets and services;
- (8) Expand judiciary certified reentry specialized dockets and services for prison populations;
- (9) Reconnect services to jail populations in order to form a wholistic approach to service and reduce recidivism;
- (10) Increase awareness and education to the judiciary and stakeholders on reentry services and practices;
- (11) Identify processes that may need to be reviewed.

(B) Authority

The task force has no independent policy-setting authority.

SECTION 2. MEMBERSHIP.

2.01. Appointments.

The task force consists of no more than thirty-four members appointed by the Chief Justice. The task force and other interested parties may recommend to the Chief Justice persons for appointment who they believe will serve the purpose for which the task force was created.

2.02. Qualifications.

Each task force member shall have experience or an interest in the transition of incarcerated persons from prison or jail back into the community under court supervision.

2.03. Composition.

Task force membership should be broad-based and multi-disciplinary to represent a cross section of interests related to the transition of incarcerated persons from prison or jail back into the community under court supervision and reflect the gender, racial, ethnic, and geographic diversity of the state.

SECTION 3. TERMS AND VACANCIES.

3.01. Terms.

The term of a task force member extends through the issuance of the final report and recommendations by the task force.

3.02. Change of Position, Employment, Affiliation, or Status.

Each task force member appointed because of the member's elected position, official position, employment, organizational affiliation, or other status ceases to be a member at such time the member no longer holds that position, employment, affiliation, or status.

3.03. Filling of Vacancies.

Vacancies on the task force shall be filled in the same manner as original appointments. A task force member appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of the term for which the member's predecessor was appointed holds office for the remainder of that term.

SECTION 4. OFFICERS AND STAFF.

4.01. Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson.

The Chief Justice shall appoint one task force member to serve as the chairperson and one member to serve as the vice-chairperson.

4.02. Staff Liaison.

The Administrative Director of the Court shall assign one or more Court employees as may be necessary to serve as staff liaison to the task force. The staff liaison assists the task force as necessary in the implementation of its work, but at all times is considered an employee of the Court.

SECTION 5. MEETINGS.

5.01. Manner.

The task force may meet in person or by telephone or other electronic means available to the Court.

5.02. Frequency.

The task force shall meet as often as required to complete its work. The task force may meet at the call of the chairperson or at the request of a majority of the task force members.

5.03. Scheduling.

All task force meetings shall be scheduled for a time and place so as to minimize costs to the Court and to be accessible to task force members, Court staff, and the public.

5.04. Public Notice and Attendance.

(A) Notice

Public notice of all task force meetings shall be provided on the Court's website.

(B) Attendance

All task force meetings shall be open to the public.

5.05. Member Attendance.

(A) Requirement

For a fully effective task force, a task force member shall make a good faith effort to attend, in person, each task force meeting.

(B) Participation by telephone or other electronic means

A task force member who is unable to attend a meeting due to an unavoidable conflict may request the chairperson allow the member to participate by telephone or other electronic means available to the Court. A task force member participating in this manner is considered present for meeting attendance, quorum, and voting purposes.

(C) Replacement designee

A task force member may designate a replacement for participation in or voting at meetings as necessary.

(D) Nonattendance

If a task force member misses three consecutive meetings, the chairperson or staff liaison may recommend to the Chief Justice that the member relinquish the member's position on the task force.

5.06. Minutes.

Minutes shall be kept at every task force meeting and distributed to the task force members for review prior to and approval at the next meeting.

5.07. Quorum.

A quorum exists when a majority of task force members is present for the meeting, including those members participating by telephone or other electronic means.

5.08. Actions.

At any task force meeting at which a quorum is present, the task force members may take action by affirmative vote of a majority of the members in attendance, provided the Justice of the Supreme Court shall not vote unless the vote of the task force is equally divided.

SECTION 6. SUBCOMMITTEES.

6.01. Creation.

The task force may form such subcommittees it believes necessary to complete the work of the task force. A subcommittee should consist of select task force members and other persons who the chairperson believes will assist in a full exploration of the issue under the review of the subcommittee.

6.02. Size.

A subcommittee should remain relatively small in size and have a ratio of task force members to non-task force members not exceeding one to three.

6.03. Application of Guidelines.

Guidelines 4.02, 5.01, 5.03, 5.04(B), 5.07, 5.08, 7.01, and 7.03 through 7.06 apply to the work and non-task force members of a subcommittee.

SECTION 7. MISCELLANEOUS GUIDELINES.

7.01. Code of Ethics.

A task force member shall comply with the requirements of the Court's Code of Ethics for Court Appointees. The staff liaison shall provide each task force member with a copy of the code following the member's appointment to the task force.

7.02. Reports.

(A) Progress or draft report

The task force may issue a progress or draft report as it believes necessary to facilitate the work of the task force and to communicate the nature of its work to the public and various constituencies of the Court.

(B) Final report and recommendations

The task force shall issue a final report of its findings and recommendations to the Chief Justice and the Justices of the Court by June 1, 2024. The staff liaison shall submit the report to the Administrative Director for distribution to the Chief Justice and publication on the Court's website.

7.03. Work Product.

The work product of the task force is the property of the Court.

7.04. Budget.

The budget of the task force is set by the Court through its internal budget process and as implemented by the Court office, section, or program through which the task force operates. The task force has no authority to set its own budget.

7.05. Compensation.

A task force member serves without compensation.

7.06. Reimbursement of Expenses.

A task force member shall be reimbursed for expenses incurred in service to the task force as permitted by the Court's Guidelines for Travel by Court Appointees.

7.07. Dissolution.

The task force shall dissolve following issuance of its final report and recommendations. Additionally, the Chief Justice may dissolve the task force at any time solely upon the discretion of the Chief Justice or upon the recommendation of the task force indicating the task force is no longer productive.

Effective Date: April 28, 2023
