CLERK OF COURT
SUPREME COURT OF OHIO

Disciplinary Counsel, Relator,
v.
James Christopher Zury, Respondent.

Case No. 2015-0354

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

The Board of Professional Conduct of the Supreme Court of Ohio filed a certification of default in the office of the clerk of this court. In this certification of default, the board certifies that respondent, James Christopher Zury, Attorney Registration No. 0065389, failed to file an answer to a formal complaint pending before the board. Accordingly, pursuant to Gov.Bar R. V(14), respondent may be subject to an interim default suspension.

On consideration thereof, it is ordered by the court that the parties show cause why an interim default suspension should not be imposed by the court and the disciplinary order so entered.

It is further ordered that any objections to the certification of default, together with a brief in support thereof, shall be due on or before 20 days from the date of this order. It is further ordered that an answer brief may be filed on or before 15 days after any brief in support of objections has been filed.

After a hearing on the objections, or if no objections are filed within the prescribed time, the court shall enter such order as it may find proper which may be the immediate suspension of respondent from the practice of law.

It is further ordered that all documents filed with this court in this case shall meet the filing requirements set forth in the Rules of Practice of the Supreme Court of Ohio, including requirements as to form, number, and timeliness of filings and further that unless clearly inapplicable, the Rules of Practice shall apply to these proceedings. All documents are subject to Sup.R. 44 through 47 which govern access to court records.

It is further ordered that service shall be deemed made on respondent by sending this order, and all other orders in this case, to respondent's last known address.
