

CREDIT HOURS

Current Rule		New Rule
Teaching
Attorney may earn up to three credit hours for each credit hour taught during an initial presentation and one credit hour for each credit hour taught during a subsequent presentation of the same program.	Gov. Bar R. X, Sec. 4(A)(2)(a) and CCLE Reg. 401.1(A)	Attorney may earn to three credit hours for each credit hour taught during an initial presentation, up to two credit hours for each hour taught during an initial panel presentation, and one credit hour for each credit hour taught during a subsequent presentation of the same program.	Gov. Bar R. X, Sec. 5(B) and CCLE Reg. 401.1(A)
Maximum number of hours an attorney can earn through teaching is one-half the required credit hours for the biennium.	Gov. Bar R. X, Sec. 4(A)(2)(a) and CCLE Reg. 401.1(A)	No Change.	Gov. Bar R. X, Sec. 5(B) and CCLE Reg.401.1(A)
Law School Teaching
Attorney may earn one-half credit hour for each semester hour taught at a law school accredited by the American Bar Association.	Gov. Bar R. X, Sec. 4(A)(2)(b) and CCLE Reg. 401.2(A)	No Change.	Gov. Bar R. X, Sec. 5(C) and CCLE Reg. 401.2(A)
Publication
Attorney may earn up to ten hours of credit for publication of an article or book. Publication must concern matters directly related to the practice of law and be intended primarily for reading or use by attorney or judge.	Gov. Bar R. X, Sec. 4(A)(3) and CCLE Reg. 403	Attorney may earn up to twelve hours of credit for publication of an article or book. Publication also must be of substantial or scholarly quality. Insubstantial articles or books, such as self-published materials or blogs, are not eligible for credit.	Gov. Bar R. X, Sec. 5(D) and CCLE Reg. 403
Self-Study
Attorney may earn up to six hours of credit through approved self-study education.	Gov. Bar R. X, Sec. 4(A)(4) and CCLE Reg. 409.2	Attorney may earn up to twelve hours of credit through approved self-study education.	Gov. Bar R. X, Sec. 5(E) and CCLE Reg. 409.2

CREDIT HOURS

Law School Course Credit
Attorney may earn up to three hours of credit for each semester of a course taken at a law school accredited by the American Bar Association.	Gov. Bar R. X, Sec. 4(A)(5) and CCLE Reg. 402	No Change.	Gov. Bar R. X, Sec. 5(F) and CCLE Reg. 402(A)
Mayor's Court
Attorney may earn one credit hour for every two hours of accredited Mayor's Court education completed for the purpose of serving as a Mayor's Court magistrate.	Gov. Bar R. X, Sec. 4(A)(6)	No Change.	Gov. Bar R. X, Sec. 5(G)
Pro Bono
Not permitted.		Attorney may earn one credit hour for every six hours of pro bono service performed for a recognized pro bono organization. Attorney may earn no more than six hours of credit every biennial period through pro bono credit.	Gov. Bar R. X, Sec. 5(H) and CCLE Reg. 415
Mentoring
Attorney may receive up to twelve hours of credit, including one hour of ethics, one hour of professionalism, and one-half hour of substance abuse credit, by participating as a mentor in the Supreme Court Lawyer to Lawyer Mentoring Program.	CCLE Reg. 401.3	Attorney may receive up to twelve hours of credit, including two and one-half hours of "professional conduct" credit, by participating as a mentor in the Supreme Court Lawyer to Lawyer Mentoring Program.	CCLE Reg. 401.3
Carry Over of Credit to Next Biennial Period
Attorney may carry over up to twelve hours of credit to the next biennial period if the attorney timely completes and reports more than the required number of hours for a biennial period.	Gov. Bar R. X, Sec. 3(B)(2)	Attorney may carry over up to twelve hours of general credit to the next biennial period if the attorney timely completes more than the required number of hours for a biennial period.	Gov. Bar R. X, Sec. 8
Judge may carry over up to twenty hours of	Gov. Jud. R. IV,	Judge may carry over up to twenty hours of	Gov. Jud. R. IV,

CREDIT HOURS

credit to the next biennial period if the judge timely completes and reports more than the required number of hours for a biennial period.	Sec. 2(D)	general credit to the next biennial period if the judge timely completes more than the required number of hours for a biennial period.	Sec. 7
--	-----------	--	--------