SUPREME COURT OF OHIO

Respondent's Motion for Leave to Amend/Supplement her Motion for Reconsideration of Permanent Disbarment

Now comes the Respondent, Dea Lynn Character, Pro Se, and moves this Honorable Supreme Court for leave to amend and/or supplement her Motion for reconsideration of permanent disbarment, for the reasons that follow.

The Respondent was not served with the Decision.

The Respondent, who is currently incarcerated at Northeast Pre-Release Center in Cleveland, Ohio, was in the midst of preparing and typing her Motion for Reconsideration when she was locked up in segregation ("the Hole"), without any of her documents that were needed to complete the Motion, or the portion she had typed. Hours later, she was able to get paper, pencil, and some notes she had made, then mail it out to her Parents' address with a handwritten note to get it filed somehow.

WHEREFORE, for the foregoing reasons, the Respondent requests leave to amend and/or ~~[illegible]~~ supplement her Motion for Reconsideration of Permanent Disbarment.

Respectfully submitted
