CLERK OF COURT
SUPREME COURT OF OHIO

Motion For Extension of Time, (Civ. R. 6(B) and S.Ct. Prac. R. 14.3(B)(2)).

NOW COMES Sidney L. Souffrance, ("Souffrance"), in propria persona, pursuant to Civ.R.6(B), and S.Ct. Prac. R. 14.3(B)(2), and moves this Honorable Court for an ORDER of extension of time for Mr. Souffrance to file his brief (reply) in the above captioned case. Mr. Souffrance has not previously obtained an extension of time from the SUPREME COURT, as that term is used in S.Ct. Prac. R. 14.3 (B)(2), and is a reply brief which will be filed under S.Ct. Prac. R. 6.2 – 6.5.

The reason(s) and basis for this motion are that Mr. Souffrance is a layman at law acting in propria persona and needs the additional time to research, draft, compile and type his reply brief. The law-library Mr. Souffrance utilizes is inadequate, overcrowded, closed at the prisons discretion, has limited opportunity to access material needed to file his reply brief, and Mr. Souffrance is an HVAC student at L.C.I from 8-10am. In addition, Mr. Souffrance asserts that this request for extension of time isn't filed in bad faith, meant to cause undue delay or prejudice in any way to Appellee. Mr. Souffrance will make every attempt to submit his brief in reply to Appellee in time.

Therefore, based on the above facts, Souffrance prays this most Honorable Court: grant this instant motion; enter an ORDER to permit Mr. Souffrance at least twenty (20) days extension of time in which to file his brief in reply to Appellee, and any other relief this Court deems necessary just, and proper for due process and equal protection of the law.

Respectfully submitted,
