Case No 23591

VS

Shawn Nooks
Defendant

FILED
FEB 13 2012
CLERK OF COURT
SUPREME COURT OF OHIO

Motion to waive strict compliance of rules of Procedure and for leave to Proceed on a reduced Number of copies.

Comes now Shawn Nooks, Defendant Appellant acting in pro se, who hereby requests that this Honorable court grant him leave to file the accompanying memorandum in support of Jurisdiction without the number of copies as required by the rules of practice of the Supreme Court.

1 The Defendant-Appellant is acting in pro se and must follow the rules of Procedure of warren Correctional institution

2 The Defendant-Appellant is confined as an inmate in a close Security Prison and has no access to a copying machine or the financial ability to pay to have copies reproduced

3 The Defendant-Appellant has filed an affidavit of indigency and is proceeding in this appeal by way of "in Forma Pauperis

4 That between writing up a copy of these appeal papers and then writing up another copy to serve upon counsel for the plaintiff-Appellee, Defendant-Appellant has exhausted the means and material he had and it would be an impossible burden for him to meet the additional number of copies required for strict compliance with the rules.

Wherefore for all of the above reasons and for the proposition that pro se prisoners should not be held to the strigent standards of a practing attorney it is prayed that this motion herein be granted as requested and the Defendant-Appellant allowed leave to proceed on a reduced number of copies

Respectfully Submitted
