motion of Reconsideration

Now Come's Delfon Blair pro se to file a reconsideration on case No. 2016-0638, S. Ct. Prac. R. 18.02 (B)(3) the granting of motion of Dismissal. I didn't want my the Dismissal I filed to dismiss my motion for Habeas Corpus pendding and I still do the time. I requested the case No. B 1601267 on the grounds that my warrant on indictment was illega by not being complete, so it illegaly obtained the indictment, Cleveland Heig-h ts v. Spellman being blank is insufficate being incomplete. Then the actual indictment have no oath of affimeration, no notary public to assist the authincy of the Signature's, with ediv. R. 1003 to back me. State v. Davies Feb. 2013, the Signature isn't good enough. They can't prascute me in a legal bindding Court, without a legal bindding form. If the Dismissal is how I requested it leave it, if not then please consider this motion of Reconsideration.
