2010 OSDPN MEETINGS & RSVP

THE OHIO SPECIALIZED DOCKETS PRACTITIONER NETWORK

With over 125 specialized dockets in operation throughout Ohio, the Supreme Court of Ohio, the Ohio Department of Alcohol and Drug Addiction Services and the Ohio Department of Mental Health have recognized the need for interaction among the professionals that staff these courts. In order to provide such a forum, the Ohio Specialized Docket Practitioner Network was created to provide peer support and technical assistance to these programs. The Network is comprised of several sub-networks that meet by discipline. These sub-network meetings allow specialized docket practitioners to discuss the challenges and successes they have faced in their specific role on the specialized docket court team. In addition, the sub-network meetings offer opportunities for specialized docket professionals to provide program updates, discuss program operations, and discover innovative and effective strategies employed by other specialized dockets. If you are a member of a court's specialized docket team and would like to participate in the Network or learn more, then please contact our office at (614) 387-9425.

STATE JUSTICE SUPPORTS MENTAL HEALTH COURTS

Once known as the "Velvet Hammer" for her tough approach to criminal sentencing, Justice Evelyn Lundberg Stratton has since taken a somewhat different approach on the Ohio Supreme Court. Stratton, a Republican, was in Mansfield on Thursday to talk about what she described as a personal passion for the last 10 years – specialized courts for the mentally ill, who she said have been poorly served by the justice system. JUDGE KEEPS BUSY, DESPITE DIAGNOSIS

She's a former prosecutor, former elections director, one of the YWCA's Women of the Year, and a Municipal Court judge who next month will become the 118th president of the Cincinnati Bar Association. When Julie Stautberg slowed down enough to take a deep breath—literally—last summer, she felt something that led her to ask her doctor about it. The discomfort she'd been feeling down the right side of her torso earned her a more powerful and ominous description: cancer patient. More...

SENATOR LEARNS MORE ABOUT PLIGHT OF VETERANS

Homelessness and mental-health issues were hot topics when Sen. Sherrod Brown visited the Chillicothe VA hospital Thursday to speak with veterans and center hospital directors. Director Jeff Gering said he was pleased Brown, a member of the Senate's Veterans Affairs Committee and a northeast Ohioan, took the time to visit and learn more about the veteran population in southern Ohio. MOST OHIOANS SUPPORT MEDICAL MARIJUANA, POLLSTERS SAY, BUT STATE LAWMAKERS SHY AWAY

Ohioans of all races, income levels, educational backgrounds and ideologies tell pollsters that they support allowing Ohio doctors to prescribe marijuana to their patients. But Gov. Ted Strickland and most Ohio lawmakers don't. So a medical marijuana bill introduced last week by Rep. Kenny Yuko and a handful of House Democrats has pretty much already gone up in smoke, despite what most Ohioans may think. More...

MEDICAL MARIJUANA DEBATE HEATS UP

Once again, the medical marijuana debate took center stage in Ohio on Wednesday. Mary Jane Borden strongly supports legalizing marijuana for medical use. She said her advocacy started when she heard four words. "Multiple congenital cartilaginous exostoses," said Borden. "It puts bumps at the end of your long bones, stretches your muscles, and it causes a lot of pain. These are all neurological issues in my case." More...

BILL PROPOSES LEGALIZING MEDICAL MARIJUANA

Legislation to legalize dispensing, growing and using marijuana for medical purposes has been introduced in the Ohio House. Passage is unlikely, but if that happens, Ohio would become the 15th state to make medical marijuana legal. More...

STOPPED CARS AT BRIDGE RAISE RED FLAGS

More than 40,000 cars and trucks a day cross the Jeremiah Morrow Bridge in Warren County, but it's not the passing vehicles that worry state troopers who patrol the area. Because it's Ohio's highest bridge, the structure in Turtlecreek Township attracts people considering ending their lives. About a half-dozen times a year, the State Highway Patrol is called to the 239-foot-high bridge on reports of people contemplating suicide, endangering troopers and motorists. More...
