DOMESTIC VIOLENCE SUPERVISION FORUM

RSVP Deadline: November 16, 2015

Date: November 20, 2015; 9:30am – 3:00pm EST

Location: Ohio Judicial Center

We are excited to bring Jim Henderson to the Supreme Court. Jim is a highly sought after national expert on both the theory and practical advice needed to make a difference with DV offenders. His dynamic and engaging style will shed a new light on how you look at these participants – regardless of whether they appear in a domestic violence, drug, mental health, veteran, or other docket.

Due to limited capacity, we are encouraging each docket to send up to 2 or 3 participants. Registration will begin at 9:30, with the session lasting from 10 am – 3 pm. Beverages and a box lunch will be offered. CLE and COB credits have been requested. There is no charge for this event. Please RSVP through this link https://domesticviolencesupervisionforum.eventbrite.com.

NO SPECIALIZED DOCKET CONFERENCE IN 2015

There will be no Specialized Docket Conference in 2015 as we are working to move the conference to a larger venue. We look forward to next year in a larger space.

IMPAIRED DRIVING CASE ESSENTIALS

Dates: October 26-29, 2015

Location: Reno, NV

Impaired driving cases are often very technical and involved cases, which require a lot of specialized knowledge on the part of not only the attorneys, but also the judges. In addition, the rate of recidivism with impaired motor vehicle offenders is high, and judges should be well-equipped with the methods needed to reduce repeat offenders. More information can be found here: http://www.judges.org/impaired-driving-case-essentials-1510/.

DRIVING CHANGE CONFERENCE 2015

Dates: November 2-3, 2015

Location: Boston, MA

The Driving Change Conference will provide training to communities and organizations focused on the identification of and response to high risk domestic violence cases. Core concepts and outcomes of the Domestic Violence High Risk Team (DVHRT) Model<sup>SI</sup> will be presented, providing practical, hands-on training for advocates, law enforcement, probation, prosecutors and criminal justice professionals interested in a coordinated response to the most dangerous cases. The goal of the Driving Change Conference is to provide communities with the information and knowledge they need to transform their response and to explore innovative approaches and emerging issues in domestic violence homicide prevention. More information can be found here: http://drivingchangeconference.org/.

ENHANCING JUDICIAL SKILLS IN DOMESTIC VIOLENCE CASES WORKSHOP

Application Deadline: November 6, 2015

Participation is limited to 50 judges and judicial officers. Applications will be reviewed on a first-come, first-served basis.

Dates: December 6-9, 2015 Location: Santa Fe, NM

The National Judicial Institute on Domestic Violence (NJIDV), a partnership of Futures Without Violence, the National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges, and the U.S. Department of Justice, Office on Violence Against Women, offers a hands-on, highly interactive workshop that will provide an essential foundation for new and experienced state, tribal, and territorial judges and judicial officers to enhance their skills in handling civil and criminal domestic violence cases. Judicial participants will leave the workshop with greater knowledge and skills for handling cases involving domestic violence. Please do not make travel arrangements until you have been confirmed by the registrar. For more information on this workshop, travel, or lodging, please visit www.njidv.org, or contact the registrar, Jenny Talancon, at (775) 784-1662 or jtalancon@ncjfcj.org.

SII GRANTS

Deadline: February 1, 2016 and May 1, 2016

The State Justice Institute (SJI) is announcing the availability of five grant categories for state courts, nonprofits, and educational assistance to judges. The categories are as follows:

Project Grants (up to $300,000 each): to support innovative education and training, demonstration, and technical assistance projects to improve the administration of justice in the nation's courts.

TA Grants (up to $50,000 each): to provide state and local courts with funding to obtain expert assistance to diagnose a problem, develop a response to that problem, and initiate implementation of any needed changes.

CAT Grants (applicants are required to match not less than 50% of the grant amount requested, of which 20% must be cash): to enable courts to modify and adapt or revise curriculum, train instructors, pilot test the new or revised curriculum, and conduct judicial-branch education and training programs.

SIG awards are of varying amounts: these grants are initiated by SJI outside the regular grant process. Recent grants have gone for pressing issues including handling of immigration and human-trafficking cases.

ESP ($1,000 awards): to provide tuition assistance for state court judges and court managers.

Information: SJI, 571/313-8843; email, contact@sji.gov; for more on funding opportunities: http://www.sji.gov/grants.php

GENERAL YOUTH FUNDING

Deadline: Rolling

Summary: Most of the work the Annie E. Casey Foundation supports takes the form of multi-year, multi-site, foundation-based projects. However, the foundation, which focuses on helping vulnerable and at-risk children, youth and their families, does not discourage interested organizations from submitting letter of inquiry when looking for grants. Founded in 1948, the primary mission of the Foundation is to foster public policies, human-service reforms, and community supports that more effectively meet the needs of vulnerable children and families. It is the 15th largest private foundation in the United States, with assets of more than $3 billion, and ranks 20th in the nation for charitable giving.

Website: www.aecf.org

PUBLIC WELFARE FOUNDATION GRANTS

Deadline: Open and rolling Website: www.publicwelfare.org

The Public Welfare Foundation (PWF) offers $1.5 million in grants for its Criminal Justice Program competition. Funds promote a fair and humane criminal justice system and violence prevention that includes alternatives to incarceration, effective legal representation and the reintegration of offenders as productive citizens. Proposals are welcomed from a wide range of organizations and can include both governmental and independent advocacy groups.

MCCORMICK TRIBUNE FOUNDATION COMMUNITIES PROGRAM GRANTS

Deadline: Ongoing

Website: www.mccormicktribune.org/programs.aspx

The McCormick Tribune Foundation Communities Program supports efforts to stimulate local philanthropy and improve community life through collaborative partnerships in communities nationwide. The foundation helps to support projects that address basic human needs, children and youth at risk, veterans, and community strengthening efforts.

SUPPORTING DOMESTIC VIOLENCE VICTIMS

Deadline: Varies by Program

The National Network to End Domestic Violence Fund (NNEDVF) teams up with the Allstate Foundation to support NNEDVF grants to aid domestic violence survivors. The program supports 501(c)(3) nonprofit organizations whose core mission is to serve or represent victims of domestic violence and their children. The effort also provides small grants to survivors of domestic violence (women and their families) to help them achieve their educational and job related goals. Any survivor of domestic violence is eligible to apply; however, the application must be completed by a local domestic violence program or coalition to be accepted. Applications will be assessed based on the need. There are a variety of grants available such as one that works through state coalitions to train advocates and encourage economic independence from abusers. Information: http://www.allstate.com/foundation/domestic-violence-grants.aspx or 202/543-5566.
