Disciplinary Counsel	*	Case No. 05-1156
Relator,
v.
	*	MOTION TO PURGE
Jennifer Krieger Hughes		CONTEMPT
Respondent.	*

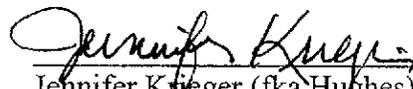

---

Now comes Respondent in this matter and respectfully requests that this Honorable Court reconsider its finding and purge the contempt for the reasons stated below and in accordance with Disciplinary Counsel v. Travis, No. 2003-1533, announced August 24, 2006 (Respondents request to reconsider and purge contempt granted).

In this matter, Respondent had proffered an affidavit of compliance within twenty (20) days of the Show Cause Order and prior to this Courts final order. The affidavit was rejected by the Clerk as it did not contain the Proof of Service as required by S.Ct.Prac.R. XIV(2)(C)(1). Respondent received the affidavit returned via regular mail, along with a letter stating she could no longer file it, because the time for filing had passed. Letter attached hereto and incorporated by reference.

Respondent has corrected this oversight and attached an affidavit, incorporated herein by reference, which complies with the Rules of Practice of the Supreme Court of Ohio. Further, Relator, Robert Berger, has no objection to this Court granting Respondents motion and purging the contempt. Therefore, Respondent respectfully requests this Honorable Court to accept the attached affidavit and purge the contempt.

Respectfully submitted,

Jennifer Krieger (fka Hughes), Pro se
9443 Springboro Pike
Miamisburg, Ohio 45342

RE: Disciplinary Counsel v. Jennifer Krieger Hughes, 05-1156

Dear Ms. Krieger:

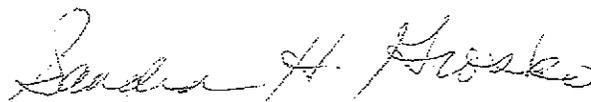

We were unable to file the enclosed document because it does not include the certificate of service required by Rule XIV(2)(C), of the Rules of Practice of the Supreme Court of Ohio. Pursuant to that rule, the certificate of service must state the date and manner of service, identify the names of the people served, and be signed by the attorney or party who files the document.

You may also wish to consider the Court's final order before attempting to file your affidavit again. The Court's order of suspension (a copy of which is enclosed) states the following regarding the affidavit:

File with the Clerk of this Court and the Disciplinary Counsel of the Supreme Court an affidavit showing compliance with this order, showing proof of service of notices required herein, and setting forth the address where the respondent may receive communications;

At this time you will not be able to resubmit your affidavit because the time for submitting it in response to the show cause order has passed. We are prohibited from filing late documents by Rule XIV(1)(C), of the Rules of Practice of the Supreme Court of Ohio. In the event the Court issues a contempt order against you, you will be permitted to submit an affidavit of compliance in response to that order.

Sincerely,

Sandra H. Grosko
Case Management Counsel

AFFIDAVIT

Now comes Affiant, Jennifer Krieger, f.k.a. Jennifer Krieger Hughes, Respondent in Case No. 2005-1156, after being duly sworn, and says the following regarding the surrender of her attorney registration card:

1. Affiant is not in possession of her attorney registration card.
2. To the best of Affiant's knowledge, her attorney registration card was stored in a box that was ruined by water damage and discarded in its entirety approximately two years ago.
3. Affiant never requested a replacement attorney registration card.
4. If Affiant discovers her belief that her card was in the discarded box is in error, and she does in fact locate her attorney registration card, she will immediately surrender it as directed by this Honorable Court.
5. Affiant having no open cases, nor clients, at the time of the Court's order, also complied regarding case transfers as none were necessary.
