Now comes John Derek Good, under penalty of perjury, being first duly sworn and cautioned and states as follows:

1. In response to the Order suspending the undersigned from the Court for six months, entered September 26, 2007, I do not have any clients and I am not presently an attorney of record in any court. Therefore, I have complied with ¶ 1 of the Order in that I do not know of any client or co-counsel that would need to be notified of my suspension.
2. I do not have any clients and do not have any pending matters, unearned fees or other papers / property to return and I have therefore fully complied with ¶ 2 of the Order.
3. I do not have any clients or any actions pending before this Court and do not have possession of any unearned fees or advanced expenses to refund, and therefore I have fully complied with ¶ 3 of the Order.
4. I do not have any clients and I am not presently an attorney of record in any court. Therefore, I have complied with ¶ 4 of the Order in that I do not know of any opposing counsel or adverse party that would need to be notified of my suspension and no notice of disqualification need be filed where I am not appearing as attorney of record in any court.
5. I do not have any clients and I am not presently an attorney of record in any court. Therefore, I have complied with ¶ 5 of the Order because no notices are required to be sent, certified or otherwise.
6. This affidavit satisfies ¶ 6 of the Order which required an affidavit showing proof of service of notices. I can receive communications at 730 Planters Manor Way, Bradenton, Florida 34212.

7. I have retained, and will retain a record of my compliance with the Order aforementioned.

8. I have misplaced my certificate of admission to this Court and am unable to comply with the Order's demand that same be returned to the Court. I will continue to make a diligent effort to find a copy, and if same is located, I will return the certificate forthwith.
