RELATOR, CLEVELAND BAR

MOTION TO CONTINUE ORAL ARGUMENT

Respondent Pro Se, Attorney Luann Mitchell, hereby files a motion to continue oral argument. The notice received by Respondent on November 26, 2007 from this Court sets an oral argument date of December 12, 2007 in Columbus, Ohio. This hearing will determine whether Respondent and her unblemished law license of 24 years should be subjected to disciplinary repercussions and sanctions.

Respondent Pro Se has a medically necessary procedure scheduled for December 12, 2007 at the Cleveland Clinic in Cleveland, Ohio in anticipation of surgery. Thus, the dates are in conflict, requiring Respondent Pro Se to file this medically necessary Motion to Continue Oral Argument. A letter in support of this Motion to Continue Oral Argument from Respondent's surgeon, Tommaso Falcone, M.D., Chairman, Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology, is attached and marked Exhibit A.

Respondent Pro Se has no co-counsel on this case and is a sole practitioner.

WHEREFORE, Respondent Pro Se requests that this honorable court grant her medically necessary motion. This request is not interposed for a delay or dilatory purpose, but is strictly necessary due to circumstances beyond the control of the undersigned counsel.

Respectfully submitted,
