Re: Dayton Bar Association v. Nicholas L. Gerren, Jr., Case No. 06-442

Dear Mr. Gerren:

On September 13, 2006, the Supreme Court of Ohio suspended you from the practice of law for eighteen months, and stayed the last six months on conditions. You were reinstated on February 26, 2008, and placed on monitored probation for a period of six months in the above-captioned matter. You were ordered to cooperate fully with a monitoring attorney appointed by relator. At the end of your probationary period, relator was ordered to file with the court a report stating whether you complied with the conditions of probation and monitoring.

On September 2, 2008, you filed an Application for Termination of Probation. The Supreme Court of Ohio has informed the Clerk's Office that it will not consider an attorney's application for termination of probation until the Court's orders and Rules for the Government of the Bar of Ohio have been fully complied with and the requirements for termination of probation have been met. Although the relator filed a notice of appointment of monitoring attorney on April 24, 2008, as of the date of this letter, the relator has not filed its report with the Court. The Court will not consider your termination of probation until such time as relator files this report with the Clerk's Office of the Supreme Court.

If you have any questions, do not hesitate to contact me at 614/387-9541.

Sincerely,
