Appellant American General Financial Services, Inc. respectfully requests that the Court reschedule the Oral Argument recently scheduled for March 24, 2009 in the referenced cases. These cases were consolidated for oral argument.

Counsel has an unavoidable conflict that date, including the fact that lead counsel for American General has a previously scheduled commitment that will take her out of the country from March 23 through 27. Because the Clerk's Frequently Asked Questions indicate oral arguments are normally scheduled three to six months after the final reply brief is filed (here, February 2, 2009), the undersigned did not believe it was necessary to inform the Court she would be out of the country in the month of March.¹ This request is not sought for the purpose of delay, and will not prejudice any party. All counsel in both referenced cases have consented to this request.
