Re: Case No. 2010-0054, Pheils v. Palmer, et al.

Dear Mr. Palmer:

On February 5, 2010, Justice Cupp received from you an ex parte, unsolicited email communication referencing the above-styled case. A copy of the email is enclosed.

Rule 2.9(B) of the Ohio Code of Judicial Conduct addresses how judges should respond to ex parte communications: "If a judge receives an unauthorized ex parte communication bearing upon the substance of a matter, the judge shall make provision promptly to notify the parties of the substance of the communication and provide the parties with an opportunity to respond."

On behalf of Justice Cupp, by the letter enclosed, I have notified all counsel in this case of the communication received from you and provided an opportunity to any party to request that Justice Cupp recuse from participation in the referenced case. Any such request should be filed with the Clerk of the Supreme Court by February 25, 2010.

Sincerely,

Kristina D. Frost
Clerk of the Court

Dear Justice Cupp:

As I suspect you know by now there has been a "wholesale," voluntary-disqualification" of Supreme Court Justices, including Chief Justice Thomas Moyer for "provable and admitted bias" as set forth in my motions/letters submitted earlier this week.

Below is the URL that contains a copy of a letter for your consideration regarding this "en masse" disqualification for admitted bias, which I have published on my web site at www.noethics.net earlier this date (Feb. 4, 2010 - Pacific Time) and sent out on my Twitter account.

I as well as others, including but not limited to the masses that visit my web site on a daily basis, which would of course include interested members of the media, anxiously await your prompt response.

With all due respect and in the interest of expediency, I would appreciate a reply via email at: Noethics1@aol.com.

Thanks for your time and attention to this matter and your anticipated prompt reply.
