Memorandum in Support

This case comes to the Court on appeal by Columbus Southern Power Company (“CSP” or “Appellant”) from a final Opinion and Order of the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio (“Commission”) dated October 15, 2009, an Entry on Rehearing dated December 11, 2009, and an Entry on Rehearing dated March 24, 2010 in Case No. 09-516-EL-AEC.

IEU-Ohio is an association of ultimate customers whose members purchase substantial amounts of electric and related services from CSP and other Ohio electric distribution utilities (“EDUs”). IEU-Ohio’s members work together to address matters that affect the availability and price of utility services. Additionally, IEU-Ohio seeks to promote customer-driven policies that will assure an adequate, reliable, and efficient supply of energy for all consumers at competitive prices. To this end, IEU-Ohio has worked and will continue to work to produce legislative, regulatory, and market outcomes that are consistent with the state policy contained in R.C. 4928.02.

IEU-Ohio has a direct, real, and substantial interest in any modification requested by Appellant and the disposition of this proceeding may impair or impede IEU-Ohio’s ability to protect this interest. Specifically, IEU-Ohio’s direct interest in this proceeding is the result of the effect that this proceeding shall have upon the price, adequacy, and reliability of the electric supply and related services within Ohio, including the areas presently served by CSP. Should the Appellant prevail and the Commission’s Opinion and Order and Entries on Rehearing be reversed, IEU-Ohio members may suffer harm as a result of the effect on the pricing, adequacy and reliability of electric supply and related services. IEU-Ohio believes that its participation will not cause undue delay, will not unjustly prejudice any existing party, and will contribute to the just and expeditious resolution of the issues raised in this appeal. Finally, IEU-Ohio's interest is not adequately represented by the existing parties in this proceeding.

IEU-Ohio, therefore, respectfully requests that this Court grant it leave to intervene as an Appellee in this proceeding. In the event that IEU-Ohio's Motion to Intervene as an Appellee is not granted, IEU-Ohio respectfully provides notice to the Court of its filing of an Amicus Brief in Support of the Appellee.

Respectfully submitted,
