FILED
AUG 02 2010
CLERK OF COURT
SUPREME COURT OF OHIO

Rule of Practice of the Supreme Court of Ohio 9.6 permits counsel for amicus curiae to present oral argument if the side that the amicus curiae supports gives permission and the Court grants leave to do so. Here, the Ohio Hospital Association supports Appellant Dialysis Clinic, Inc. Sean P. Callan, counsel for Dialysis Clinic, Inc., has given Chad A. Readler, counsel for the Ohio Hospital Association, permission to present oral argument in this case, and to share the argument time otherwise allowed to Appellant. The Ohio Hospital Association thus respectfully requests that the Court grant Mr. Readler leave to do so. The Court should do so because the Board of Tax Appeals' erroneous interpretation of the tax exemptions for charitable property in this case has far-reaching implications for nonprofit charitable entities that provide health care. Argument on behalf of the Ohio Hospital Association, therefore, may help the Court in its decisional process.

Amicus Curiae Ohio Hospital Association respectfully requests that the Court grant it leave to participate in oral argument in this matter.

Dated: August 2, 2010

Respectfully submitted,

---
