Re: Cincinnati Bar Association v. Robert K. Larson, Case No. 2009-1267

Dear Mr. Larson:

The enclosed affidavit of compliance could not be filed because it does not meet the requirements of the Rules of Practice of the Supreme Court of Ohio. Specifically, it does not have attached to it the certificate of service that is required by S.Ct.Prac. R. 14.2. The Clerk's Office is not permitted to file the document without it.

In addition, please note that there appears to be an inadvertent misstatement in your affidavit of compliance. The affidavit states that copies of your client notices are attached to the affidavit but these were not received.

Additionally, if you are seeking to file an affidavit of compliance in Case No. 2010-1424, a separate affidavit should be submitted in each case or you may put both case captions and numbers on one affidavit and submit two originals.

Because the time for deadline for filing the affidavit of compliance passed at 5 p.m. on September 27, 2010, the Clerk's Office cannot file a corrected affidavit of compliance. If the Court issues an order to show cause why you should not be held in contempt for not filing the affidavit of compliance, however, you may resubmit your corrected affidavit of compliance in response to it. Please feel free to contact the Clerk's Office about this if you have questions.

Sincerely,

JoElla
Deputy Clerk
