CLERK OF COURT
SUPREME COURT OF OHIO

RESPONDENTS' MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF BRIEF DEADLINE

Now come the Respondents, William and Janice Mohat, by and through undersigned Counsel, and hereby request a ten day extension of the briefing schedule applicable to the Respondent in this case. This leave is requested under S. Ct. R. Prac. 14.3(B)(2)(b). Counsel for the Petitioner has denied the Respondent's request for a stipulation for additional time under Rule 14.3(B)(2)(a).

As cause, the undersigned has become aware that at least one amicus curiae would like the opportunity to submit a brief in support of the Respondents. As the Mohats have already prepared and filed their own brief, this leave is not requested to allow them more time, but rather to provide for this Court a more complete exposition of the issues and viewpoints of interested parties.

One party who has asked the undersigned to request this additional time is the Ohio Association for Justice, which is the principal bar organization for plaintiffs in Ohio. Respondents also note that Amicus Nikki Hardy submitted a preliminary memorandum in support of the Respondent's position, and may avail herself of the opportunity to submit a brief on the merits.

Wherefore, Respondents ask this Court to issue an order granting ten additional days for interested amici to file a brief in support of the Respondents. As ten days from the date of this Motion falls on Saturday November 13, Respondents ask this Court to allow to Monday, November 15, 2010, as the briefing deadline for the Respondents.

Respectfully submitted,
