STIPULATION FOR
EXTENSION OF REPLY BRIEF DEADLINE

Now comes all parties, by and through undersigned counsel, and hereby stipulates to a twenty-day (20-day) extension of time for the Appellant to file its reply brief. This stipulation is agreed to pursuant to S.Ct.R. Prac. 14.3(B)(2)(a).

Appellant the City of Cleveland Heights, Ohio's reply brief is currently due on February 7, 2011; the parties stipulate that the Appellee's brief will now be due on February 23, 2011.

Appellant needs the additional time to fully address the arguments set forth in the Appellee's merit brief and in the amicus curiae briefs filed by the Cuyahoga County Public Defender's Office, the Ohio Association of Criminal Defense Attorneys, and Towards Employment¹ and the amicus brief filed by D. Jim Brady. Due to the press of business, the undersigned needs this additional time to respond to the Appellee's brief and the amicus curiae briefs.

The parties have agreed to stipulate to the requested extension. Appellant has further contacted representatives for the amici curiae, and they agreed to the requested extension.

Wherefore, Appellant, the City of Cleveland Heights, Ohio, respectfully requests that this Court approve the stipulated extension of time for Appellant to file its reply brief on or before February 23, 2011.

¹ The Cuyahoga County Public Defender, Ohio Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers, and Towards Employment jointly filed an amicus brief in support of the Appellee. Said brief was 40 pages in length.

Respectfully submitted,

KIM T. SEGEBARTH (0018872)
