 SUPREME COURT OF OHIO

Relator Cinseree Johnson is a vexatious litigator. Have her arguments been raised and rejected? Yes ---- but no matter. She simply files more complaints, amended complaints, motions for default, motions to strike, etc., based on the same frivolous, rejected claims and positions. Clearly textbook vexatious legal practice.

On February 22, 2011, relator filed a meritless motion to vacate the February 16th final judgment dismissing her prohibition action. Respondents filed a short response memorandum opposing vacation. Now relator wants the Court to strike respondents' response memorandum. Relator keeps repeating that respondent Judge Michael Ward cannot sign for respondents. But the February 16th dismissal clearly stands as a rejection of that previously-argued position. Relator has nothing new to say.

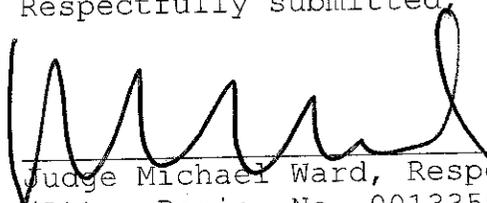

Each time relator files another frivolous complaint or motion, respondents feel the need to respond, if only to assure the Court that they are aware of relator's filings and that they take their roles as litigants herein seriously. And respondents will continue to defend against further frivolousness on relator's part.

Accordingly, respondents respectfully request that the Court deny relator's March 7th motion to strike.

Respectfully submitted,

Judge Michael Ward, Respondent
