AKRON BAR ASSOCIATION)

CASE NO. 2010-2140

Relator)

JOINT MOTION OF RELATOR AND RESPONDENT

vs.

ERIC ROSS FINK,

Respondent.)

FILED
OCT 06 2011
CLERK OF COURT
SUPREME COURT OF OHIO

Now come Relator, Akron Bar Association, and Respondent, Eric Ross Fink, by and through counsel, and submit that upon their review of the Transcript of Proceedings before the Board of Commissioners on Grievances and Discipline of the Supreme Court of Ohio in regard to Eric R. Fink, Respondent, the parties find that there were no inconsistencies between Respondent's testimony regarding prior discipline offenses and his compliance with Continuing Legal Education requirements.

In this matter, on p. 22 of the Transcript, questions were asked:

(p. 22, Line 9)

Q. Did you have anybody that—Then or now have you ever been sued for legal malpractice?

A. No.

Q. Then or now have you ever had any finding of ethical violations by the Supreme Court of Ohio?

A. No.

Q. Have you maintained your required CLE responsibilities for the Supreme Court of Ohio?

A. Yes, I have.

Q. I think you provided to me what has been previously marked as Respondent's Exhibit 6. Is this your latest filings with the Supreme Court showing you're up to date on your CLE Studies?

- A. December 31st, 2009.

It is the belief and expectation of the parties that any questions regarding Attorney Fink's CLE responsibilities would have been answered regarding his present status and that his failure to disclose a momentary problem regarding CLE reporting issues from 2002 through 2003 and 2004 through 2005. Once that issue was discovered, Respondent immediately resolved the compliance problem. See Fink Affidavit. Those matters have been paid and Relator is satisfied that the responses of Respondent Fink was merely inadvertent on his part.
