Re: Disciplinary Counsel v. Edward Paul Brueggeman, Case No. 2010-1220

Dear Mr. Brueggeman:

On December 21, 2010, the Supreme Court of Ohio indefinitely suspended you from the practice of law for a period of twelve months with the entire suspension stayed on the conditions that you: (1) serve one year of monitored probation pursuant to Gov.Bar R.V(9); (2) continue to comply with your existing Ohio Lawyers Assistance Program contract; and, (3) refrain from any additional misconduct. At the end of your probationary period, relator was ordered to file with the court a report stating whether you complied with the conditions of probation and monitoring.

On February 24, 2012, you filed an Application for Termination of Probation. The Supreme Court of Ohio has informed the clerk's office that it will not consider an attorney's application for termination of probation until the court's orders and Rules for the Government of the Bar of Ohio have been fully complied with and the requirements for termination of probation have been met. Although the relator filed a notice of appointment of monitoring attorney on January 6, 2011, as of the date of this letter, the relator has not filed its report with the court. The court will not consider your termination of probation until such time as relator files this report with the clerk's office of the Supreme Court.

If you have any questions, do not hesitate to contact me at (614)387-9541.

Sincerely,
