 CLERK OF COURT
 SUPREME COURT OF OHIO

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT

Respondent moves this Honorable Court for an Order allowing him an additional thirty (30) days in which to file Objections to the June 12, 2012 Report and Recommendation of the Board of Commissioners on Grievances and Discipline ("Board").

As grounds for this Motion, Respondent has retained new counsel for the appeal of the Board's recommendation. Counsel is newly retained and, hence, unfamiliar with the record and the underlying proceedings. In order to properly file Objections with this Court, counsel will need additional time to study the record and become familiar with the details of the underlying issues. A short continuance of thirty (30) days will facilitate this process and ensure that thoughtful and rational Objections are filed with this Court.

No party will suffer any prejudice if this Motion is granted. No undue delay of this case will occur if the Respondent is given an additional thirty (30) days to file his Objections. For all of these reasons, the Respondent's Motion should be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

Kenneth R. Donchatz (0062221)
