Re: Case No. 2012-1430, Hector Johnson v. Bureau of Sentencing Computations
Chief Melissa Adams

Dear Mr. Johnson:

This letter shall serve as notice that although the attached complaint was filed, your case cannot proceed without the address of the respondent as required by S.Ct. Prac. R. 10.4(A). In order for the clerk's office to serve your complaint on the respondent, you must file an amended complaint which fully complies with S.Ct. Prac. R. 10.4(A), and which specifies on the cover page of the complaint the name, title, and address of the respondent. Failure to file an amended complaint which fully complies with S.Ct. Prac. R. 10.4(A) may result in the dismissal of this case.

Sincerely,

Justin Kudela
Case Management Counsel
