The following transaction was entered on 05/29/2012 at 10:21:47 AM CDT and filed on 05/29/2012

Case Name: Yvette Baldwin v. Marshall & Ilsley Corporation

Case Number: 11-3766

Document(s): Document(s)

Docket Text:

ORDER: 1. Motion to take judicial notice of the following attached documents as supporting information for this court of appeals, filed on 4/16/12. 2. Motion to take judicial notice of the following attached documents as supporting information for this court of appeals, filed on 4/18/12. 3. Motion for extension of time to file appellant's brief, filed on 5/3/12. 4. Motion to take judicial notice, filed on 5/3/12. 5. Motion to take judicial notice, filed on 5/14/12. Yvette Barbara Baldwin has filed four motions asking the court to take judicial notice of various documents and a motion to extend the deadline for filing her brief. We have carefully reviewed Ms. Baldwin's motions, the final order of the district court, and the record on appeal. Based on this review, we have determined that any issues which could be raised are insubstantial and that further briefing would not be helpful to the court's consideration of the issues. See Taylor v. City of New Albany, 979 F.2d 87 (7th Cir. 1992); Mather v. Village of Mundelein, 869 F.2d 356, 357 (7th Cir. 1989) (per curiam) (court can decide case on motions papers and record where briefing would be a waste of time and no member of the panel desires briefing or argument). Ms. Baldwin filed suit alleging, among other things, that Marshall & Ilsley Financial Corporation conspired to murder her and that she is the Queen of Israel. She also alleged that she was awarded $1.6 billion while she was in elementary school, but that those funds have been erased; she requested relief in the form of a $550,000 loan from a Hamilton County bank. The district court correctly dismissed Ms. Baldwin's claims as frivolous and further briefing will not change the outcome. Accordingly, we summarily AFFIRM the district court's dismissal. Further, it is unnecessary to rule on Ms. Baldwin's pending motions. Joel M. Flaum, Circuit Judge; Kenneth F. Ripple, Circuit Judge and Ann Claire Williams, Circuit Judge.
