Counsel for Relator

Now comes Respondent, Attorney Stanlee E. Culbreath, by and through counsel, and hereby moves this Honorable Court for an Order extending the September 11, 2012 oral argument date. As grounds for this motion, Attorney Culbreath has been ill and has not been able to participate in the preparation for the upcoming argument. Additional time would allow him a full opportunity to participate with counsel in the preparation for the argument. A memorandum in support of this Motion is attached.

Respectfully submitted,

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT

The September 11, 2012 oral argument date should be extended in order to allow Attorney Culbreath to fully participate in the preparations for the argument. As the record in this case reflects, Attorney Culbreath hired his present counsel after the hearing in this case had concluded and after the Board of Commissioners on Grievances and Discipline had issued its Report and Recommendation on June 12, 2012.

The underlying matters are numerous and complicated, particularly since Attorney Culbreath presented expert testimony related to his mitigation arguments. It was anticipated that Attorney Culbreath would actively participate in counsel's preparation of the oral argument, and in fact, Attorney Culbreath looked forward to doing so. However, due to circumstances beyond his control, Attorney Culbreath suffered a recent illness and has had to miss several appointments with his counsel. This prevented Attorney Culbreath from participating in the preparation for the September 11, 2012 oral argument of his case.

Attorney Culbreath therefore respectfully requests that the Court grant him additional time for oral argument, so that he can use the additional time to fully participate in the preparation of his case.

Respectfully submitted,

Kenneth R. Donchatz (0062221)
