RESPONDENT'S RESPONSE TO ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

Respondent sent all documents and bar card a week early on December 21, 2012 to the Supreme Court for filing. All supporting documents were sent the same day to Disciplinary Counsel. The Supreme Court of Ohio Clerk received all of the above on Christmas Eve, December 24, 2012 but filed only the bar card because there was no certificate of service attached to the Affidavit of Compliance, despite being provided notification the Disciplinary Counsel was served. The Clerk left a voice mail on December 27, 2012 that they did not file the Affidavit of Compliance because there was no Certificate of Service. A return phone call was made to the Clerk's office on December 28, 2012 and a "nunc pro tunc" Certificate of Service was mailed the same day.

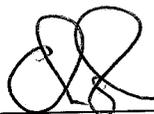

Enclosed are the documents and correspondence sent to the Supreme Court on December 21, 2012 with follow up correspondence on December 28, 2012 after notification and moves they all be filed.
