2ND DISTRICT APPELLATE CASE NO. 2012-CA-23
TRIAL COURT CASE NO. 2012 NC-1

NOTICE OF APPEAL OF APPELLANT SCOTT A. MARENBERG

On Appeal from the Opinion of the Appeal Court, 2nd Appellate District, Ohio.

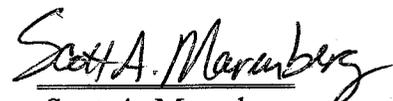

Notice of Appeal of Appellant Scott A. Marenberg

CASE NAME: IN THE MATTER OF MINOR NAME CHANGE OF J.C.H.S. TO J.C.H.M.

Now comes Appellant Scott A. Marenberg, by and through Pro Se, to notice the Supreme Court of Ohio that he Appeals under Appellate Rule 26(B) the Affirmed Judgment by Opinion from 2nd District Appeal Court on Application for Change of Name (Appeals case No. 2012-CA-00023, rendered 12-26-12, file stamp date 12-27-12).

This case raises substantial questions and is one of public or great interest based on what he feels is the exclusion for consideration of relevant facts with overwhelming circumstances that are substantial, not slight or inconsequential, and/or the Court(s) understanding of these same relevant facts, including the Appellant's argument with regard to the same facts. Mr. Marenberg would like to note that he feels it is very important that the Supreme Court not become divested with this case, as it is his opinion that it would not be in the best interest of his minor child or the protection to the preservation and development of the child/father relationship and it is his utmost feelings that the issue(s) regarding name change of his minor child are unresolved with regard to fact and argument and are unresolved without trial.

Respectfully submitted,

Scott A. Marenberg
