CLERK OF COURT
SUPREME COURT OF OHIO

PRAECIPE

Defendant-Appellant Dawud Spaulding, through his attorneys, directs this Court's duly authorized court reporter to transcribe and file a complete transcript in State v. Spaulding, Summit County Common Pleas case CR 2012-05-1508 pursuant to Ohio Supreme Court Rule of Practice 19.4, which requires the following:

(a) The transcript shall include a front and back cover; the front cover shall bear the case name and number and the name of the court in which the proceedings occurred; (b) The transcript shall be firmly bound on the left side; (c) The first page inside the front cover shall set forth the nature of the proceedings, the date or dates of the proceedings, and the judge or judges who presided; (d) The transcript shall be prepared on white paper, 8 1/2 by 11 inches in size, with the lines of each page numbered and the pages sequentially numbered; (e) An index of witnesses shall be included in the front of each volume of the transcript and shall contain page and line references to direct, cross, re-direct, and re-cross examination; (f) An index to exhibits, whether admitted or rejected, briefly identifying each exhibit, shall be included in each volume following the index of witnesses and shall reflect page and line references where each exhibit was identified and offered into evidence, was admitted or rejected, and if any objection was interposed; (g) No volume of a transcript shall exceed two hundred fifty pages in length, except it may be enlarged to three hundred pages, if necessary, to complete a part of the voir dire, opening statements, closing arguments, or jury instructions. When it is necessary to prepare more than one volume, each volume shall contain the number and name of the case and be numbered sequentially and consecutively from the previous volume, and the separate volumes shall be approximately equal in length.

The reporter shall certify that the transcript is correct and complete, as mandated by Supreme Court Rule of Practice 19.4(B)(4).

Respectfully submitted,
