NOW COMES Amicus Curiae, National Fraternal Order of Police, by and through counsel, pursuant to S. Ct. Prac. R. 17.06 (A)(1), and requests leave of this Honorable Court to participate in oral argument, within the time allotted to Appellee, Thomas Caine White.

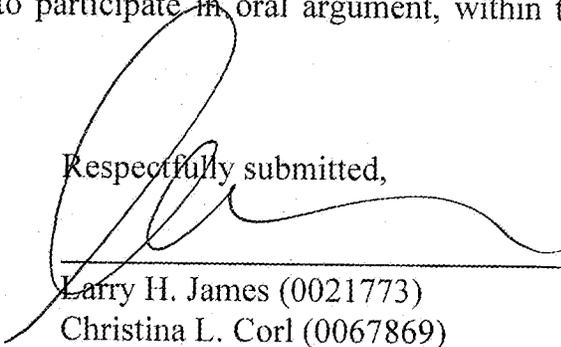

Amicus National Fraternal Order of Police represents the interests of its 325,000 police officer members in nearly 2,100 lodges across the United States. This case presents matters of significant interest to law enforcement, and the perspective of the largest organization of sworn law enforcement officers would aid the Court in its analysis.

Counsel for Appellee, Thomas Caine White, has given his consent for National FOP to participate in oral argument within the time allotted to Appellee. Pursuant to S.Ct. Prac. R. 17.06 (A)(1):

[W]ith leave of the Supreme Court and the consent of counsel for the side whose position the amicus curiae supports, counsel for the amicus curiae may present oral argument within the time allotted to that side.

For these reasons, Amicus Curiae National Fraternal Order of Police respectfully requests leave of this Court to participate in oral argument, within the time allotted to Appellee.

Respectfully submitted,
