Re: Butler County Bar Association v. William Eric Minamyser,
Case No. 2009-2284

Dear Mr. Minamyser:

On July 28, 2011, the court suspended you from the practice of law for a period of one year, all stayed on the conditions that you: (1) serve one year of probation to be supervised by a monitor appointed by relator in accordance with Gov.Bar R.V(9), (2) limit your practice to domestic relations, general litigation, and labor law (a condition imposed at your own request), (3) continue to follow the recommendations of your treating professionals, including ongoing pharmacological management by your treating physician, and (4) commit no further misconduct. On April 24, 2012, the court found you in contempt, revoked the stay of the original order, and suspended you from the practice of law for a period of one year for failing to pay your board costs.

On May 8, 2014, you filed an application for reinstatement. The Supreme Court of Ohio has informed the clerk's office that it will not consider an application for reinstatement until the attorney has complied with the court's orders and Rules for the Government of the Bar of Ohio.

First, in its April 24, 2012 order, the court ordered you to file an affidavit of compliance with the court within 30 days from the date of the order. You failed to file an affidavit of compliance. The court will not consider your application for reinstatement until you have filed an affidavit of compliance. For your convenience, a copy of that order is enclosed.

Please be advised that Rule 3.02(D) of the Rules of Practice of the Supreme Court of Ohio prohibits the clerk from filing documents after a filing deadline imposed by court order. If you immediately attempt to file your affidavit, it will be rejected as untimely. In order for you to file this item, you must wait for the court to put on a show cause order. You can then file your affidavit of compliance in response to the show cause order.

Mr. William Eric Minamyer

Second, Gov.Bar R. V(10)(A)(1) of the Rules for the Government of the Bar provides that an application for reinstatement shall be accompanied by an affidavit executed by the respondent indicating all of the following:

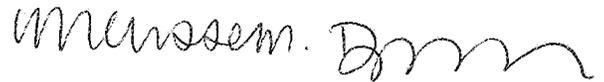

- (a) Whether any formal disciplinary proceedings are pending against the respondent;
- (b) Whether the respondent has completed a term of probation, community control, intervention in lieu of conviction, or any sanction imposed as part of a sentence for a felony conviction;
- (c) Whether the respondent has complied with the continuing legal education requirements of Gov.Bar R. X, Section 3(G).

Your application for reinstatement was not accompanied by the affidavit required by Gov.Bar R. V(10)(A)(1). You may file additional documentation to support your compliance with this rule.

Note that all documents filed with the court in this case must meet the filing requirements set forth in the Rules of Practice of the Supreme Court of Ohio.

Please contact me at (614)387-9541 if you have any questions.

Sincerely,
