RESPONDENT-APPELLEE INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION'S MEMORANDUM IN OPPOSITION TO THE MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

The Court should deny the Relator-Appellant, Hill-Foster's Motion for Reconsideration and reaffirm the Court's order that sustains Respondent-Appellee, Industrial Commission's ("commission") motion to dismiss. First, the motion for reconsideration does not raise any new arguments. Furthermore, the case law cited by Relator-Appellant, Hill-Foster in her motion for reconsideration, is not applicable to an appeal to the Supreme Court. Simply stated, a/the decision of a/the Magistrate in the Court of Appeals is not a final judgment entry or a final appealable order and, accordingly, this Court does not have jurisdiction. Therefore, the Court should deny the motion for reconsideration.

Respectfully submitted,

MICHAEL DEWINE (0009181)
Ohio Attorney General
