RE: Jesse Jackson, Jr.

Dear George:

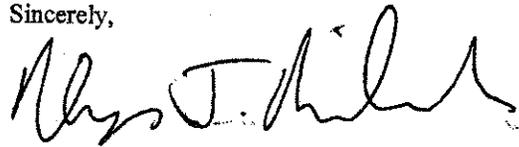

Jesse and I were classmates at the University of Cincinnati College of Law from 2004 to 2007. During our three years together, I respected Jesse because he worked extremely hard and was always someone I could go to when I needed an answer.

When we graduated, Jesse and I stayed in touch. I have referred him family law cases, and Jesse has referred personal injury clients to me. I will be forever grateful for the assistance he provided to a dear friend of mine, who still raves about Jesse's professionalism and abilities as an attorney.

Out of respect for Jesse, I attended his wife's funeral a few years ago. I did not know her very well, but I know that she meant a lot to Jesse. I also know that her untimely passing had a profound effect on Jesse and his growing legal practice. I cannot imagine losing a loved one and still being able to accomplish all of the intricacies of building a young practice. I am fortunate to have 14 other attorneys around me to provide support should that situation ever present itself. As a solo practitioner, Jesse did not have that security blanket. I do know that Jesse's core character is excellent, and I hope to be able to continue referring cases to him.

I believe Jesse Jackson, Jr. to be an honest, hard-working attorney. Even though I have only encountered him in the community at the occasional bar association outing, I am sure that he gives his community the same thoughtfulness and dedication. I hope that the Ohio Board of Commissioners on Grievances and Discipline allows Jesse to keep his license because he is an asset to our profession.

Sincerely,

Rhys J. Richards

RE: Jesse Jackson, Jr.
Ohio Board of Commissioners on Grievances

Dear Mr. Jonson:

I write in response to your request for a character reference for Jesse Jackson, Jr. I am a matrimonial practitioner in good standing in New Jersey and have known Mr. Jackson since we were classmates at the University of Cincinnati College of Law.

Mr. Jackson and I became friend during our many legal debates, many of which occurred during study sessions. Our friendship developed such that Mr. Jackson is the only attorney in Ohio I refer matrimonial matters to. And I have referred many. None of the individuals I referred to Mr. Jackson has had a negative word to say about him. Referring clients to Mr. Jackson has only enhanced my reputation.

Sincerely,

/s/ Andrew Bestafka

Re: Ohio attorney Jessie Jackson, Jr.

To whom it may concern,

I am an Ohio licensed attorney practicing criminal defense throughout southwestern Ohio. I met Mr. Jackson approximately 4 years ago, shortly after his admission to practice law, when Mr. Jackson approached me in one of the Butler County Area Courts and introduced himself.

Since that first meeting, I have had several opportunities to observe Mr. Jackson as he practices before a number of courts in Hamilton, Butler and Warren counties. His behavior has always been polite, courteous, sincere and professional; not only to the courts and their staff, but to other attorneys and to the clients that I have seen him counseling in the hallways.

While I don't know the particulars of his present issues before the grievance committee, nor did I observe any of his trial, I can state that as an attorney with my own practice, if I had the need to hire another attorney, I would have the utmost confidence in hiring Mr. Jackson to be part of the legal team that my office offers to the community and to be part of the "family" that we have here at the Meadows Law Firm.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call me.

Very truly,
