

BEFORE THE SUPREME COURT OF OHIO

THOMAS J. HAWKINS

Relator

-v-

Case No. 2015-1020

Iris L. Darst, Clerk and Chief Fiscal Officer
The Village of South Bloomfield, Ohio, et al.

APPLICATION TO DISMISS

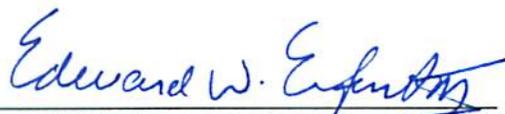

Now comes the Relator, and pursuant to S.Ct.Prac.R. 4.05, the Relator hereby applies to the Court to Dismiss this Mandamus Action, without prejudice.

The Relator would state that after the filing of the action, the Respondents retained counsel, Mr. Rob Rishel, of Rinehart, Rishel & Cuckler, LTD. As the village Solicitor, he contacted Counsel for Relator and has provided all of the records in the possession of the Village that were being sought by this mandamus action. Since the Respondents have fully complied, there is no further need to pursue this matter before this Court.

This matter has been scheduled for mediation and the Dispute Resolution Section, Ms Nicole DiCuccio, has been informed of the Relator's intention to file this Application to disiss the action.

Wherefore, Relator would respectfully request that this matter be dismissed without prejudice.

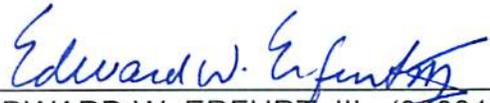

Respectfully submitted,

EDWARD W. ERFURT, III (0003108)
Attorney for the Relator
3442 Riverside Drive
Columbus, Ohio 43221
614-326-0400
Edward@erfurtlaw.com

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

I certify that a copy of the foregoing Application to Dismiss was served upon Mr. Rob Rishel, Esquire, Rinehart, Rishel & Cuckler, Ltd., at 300 E. Broad Street, Suite 450, Columbus, Ohio 43215-3436, Counsel for all Respondents, by mailing a copy of the same via ordinary US mail, postage prepaid, on this 5th day of August, 2015. Additionally, a copy of this filing was also electronically forwarded to Counsel for the Respondents at www.rrgovlaw.com on this same day.

EDWARD W. ERFURT, III (0003108)
Attorney for the Relator
3442 Riverside Drive
Columbus, Ohio 43221
614-326-0400
Edward@erfurtlaw.com