Counsel for Respondent

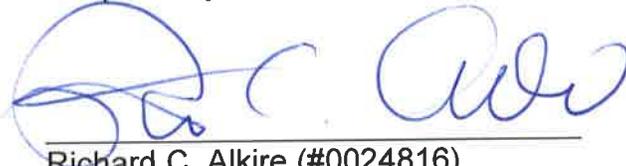

Respondent, Angela Rochelle Stokes, hereby moves this Honorable Court to dissolve the Interim Remedial Suspension Order of December 18, 2014, pursuant to Gov. Bar R. V(19)(C)(2). (App. 2)

Because Relator has failed to file with the Board of Professional Conduct an Amended Complaint predicated on the conduct that was the basis of the December 18, 2014 Order, 180 days having elapsed since the entry of such Order, this Honorable Court should dissolve it.

Accordingly, for the foregoing reasons and those more fully set forth in the Memorandum attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference, Respondent respectfully requests that this Honorable Court grant her Motion to Dissolve the December 18, 2014 Order (App. 1) which issued an interim remedial suspension from her position as an elected Municipal Court Judge of the Cleveland Municipal Court.

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF CORRECTED MOTION TO DISSOLVE THE INTERIM REMEDIAL SUSPENSION ORDER OF DECEMBER 18, 2014

I. INTRODUCTION

On November 4, 2014, Relator Disciplinary Counsel filed Relator's Motion for an Immediate Interim Remedial Suspension Under Gov. Bar R. V(5A).<sup>1</sup> (Hereinafter "Relator's Motion") At that point in time, a disciplinary Complaint had been filed by Relator Disciplinary Counsel on October 14, 2013 and the First Amended Complaint had been filed on April 24, 2014, in Case No. 2013-057 pending before the Board of Professional Conduct. (Hereinafter "The Board")

Also, on March 26, 2014 Judge Stokes filed an original action in this Court against Judge Ronald B. Adrine, Administrative and Presiding Judge of the Cleveland Municipal Court in Case No. 14-0567 arising from his issuance of Administrative Orders on March 14, 2014 which essentially removed her from her duties as a Judge of the Cleveland Municipal Court in connection with her criminal docket.<sup>2</sup>

While the original action seeking the extraordinary remedies of Quo Warranto, Mandamus and Prohibition were pending before this Honorable Court, motion practice and discovery ensued in connection with the disciplinary matter pending before The Board.

It was not until November 4, 2014 that Relator chose to file its Motion for an Immediate Interim Remedial Suspension (over one year after he filed the disciplinary Complaint) supported largely by the affidavit of Judge Adrine. Prior to this affidavit,

<sup>2</sup> Certain of these Orders were amended on March 21, 2014 by Nunc Pro Tunc entries simply changing the citation to allegedly pertinent rules.

Judge Adrine had supplied an affidavit in support of Relator's Motion for Psychiatric Examination of Respondent Pursuant to Gov. Bar R. V(7)(C)<sup>3</sup>, filed on January 7, 2014, a remedy also sought in Relator's previously filed Complaint. Attached to this motion was also an affidavit of Judge Adrine. This motion was denied on February 28, 2014.

Despite Judge Stokes having been removed from her criminal docket at all times after the filing of the First Amended Complaint in the disciplinary action until the filing of the Motion for Immediate Interim Remedial Suspension, such motion was filed to allegedly address Judge Stokes' misconduct which "has caused serious public harm and poses a substantial additional and continuing threat of serious harm to the public in the administration of justice."<sup>4</sup> This assertion was made by Relator even though Judge Adrine in his affidavit attached to Relator's Motion indicated at para. 32 that no further complaints "had been levied against Judge Stokes' [sic] arising from the disposition of her civil case load except one incident in which it was reported that she sought to have a civil litigant evaluated by the Court's Psychiatric Clinic." Along these same lines, para. 33 of Judge Adrine's affidavit indicated that "managers of all Court departments have reported to me that morale and productivity have increased since the removal of Judge Stokes from criminal case responsibilities." Thus, Judge Adrine's affidavit did not support Relator's claim of a "continuing threat of serious harm to the public..." at all.

II. STATEMENT OF PERTINENT FACTS

A comparison between the First Amended Complaint (the most recent disciplinary Complaint) pending in the disciplinary matter (Ex. 5 to Relator's Motion) and the assertions made in Relator's Motion demonstrate unequivocally that Relator has failed to file a Complaint “predicated on the conduct that was the basis of the Order.”<sup>5</sup> It must be presumed from the language of the December 18, 2014 Order (App. 1) imposing the interim suspension that it was based upon not only the matters asserted in the First Amended Complaint but also the additional matters raised by Judge Adrine in his affidavit attached to Relator’s Motion.

Relator’s Motion presented this Honorable Court, as a basis to suspend Judge Stokes, “Specific examples of Misconduct” mostly based upon the affidavit of Judge Adrine and references to certain allegations made in the First Amended Complaint. (Relator’s Motion at 4-8) A review of the bases asserted demonstrates that of the 19 specific examples of misconduct cited on pp. 4-8 of Relator’s Brief, only 12 were referenced in the First Amended Complaint. After this Motion was filed, the record demonstrates that no Second Amended Complaint has been filed. Thus, 7 of the 19 specific examples of misconduct brought to the attention of this Court, presumably forming the basis for this Court’s Order, have not become the subject of a formal complaint before the Board of Commissioners predicated on such conduct.

Indeed, with reference to the first 5 bullet points on p. 5 of Relator’s Motion, Judge Adrine in both deposition testimony and trial testimony in connection with the pending disciplinary matter has agreed that they do not constitute misconduct. Notwithstanding this testimony, the predicate to the bullet points raised by Relator in his Section “2, Specific Example of Misconduct,” indicates that “the following are just some examples of Respondent’s misconduct.” Although characterized by Judge Adrine as the “impact her action had on those who were required to participate in her irregular processes,” Disciplinary Counsel chose to characterize the same examples as misconduct.

Thereafter, bullet point 1 addresses a series of hearings involving Mr. Philhower. When questioned about the 19 separate occasions Mr. Philhower was allegedly “required” to appear in Court, Judge Adrine had to acknowledge that on a number of those occasions it was Mr. Philhower’s counsel who requested new court dates. (Hearing Tr., pp. 534-535)<sup>6</sup> Indeed, Judge Adrine was forced to acknowledge that Judge Stokes appeared to be within her discretion in connection with the 19 appearances. (Depo. Tr., p. 363)<sup>7</sup> Having gone through the detail with Respondent’s counsel at the formal hearing, Judge Adrine admitted that he probably shouldn’t have included the Philhower case in his affidavit. (Hearing Tr., pp. 567-68)

Bullet point 2 on p. 5 of Relator’s brief referenced para. 30(d) of Judge Adrine’s affidavit involving Michelle Nestor. Judge Adrine suggested that Ms. Nestor was almost terminated from her nursing program because of multiple 8-hour courtroom appearances she was required to attend. Yet, Judge Adrine was forced to admit in deposition that her lawyer did not assert such fact at all. (Depo. Tr., p. 385) Instead, Judge Adrine was required to admit that Ms. Nestor’s lawyer, although seeking driving privileges, did not have proper documentation. (Hearing Tr., pp. 597-98, 610-12)

<sup>6</sup> Hereinafter, references to pages in the Hearing Transcript of the formal hearing before the Board of Professional Conduct in Case No. 2013-057 shall be cited as “Hearing Tr., p. _____” Copies of the pages cited are reproduced in Respondent’s Supplement to Respondent’s Motion to Dissolve the Interim Remedial Suspension Order of December 18, 2014.

<sup>7</sup> Hereinafter, references to pages in the deposition transcript of Ronald B. Adrine taken in Case No. 2013-057 shall be cited as “Depo. Tr., p. _____” Copies of the pages cited are reproduced in Respondent’s Corrected Supplement to Respondent’s Motion to Dissolve the Interim Remedial Suspension Order of December 18, 2014.

Finally, when pressed, Judge Adrine was not aware of any time that Ms. Nestor spent 8 hours in Judge Stokes' courtroom. (Hearing Tr., p. 614)

In bullet point 3, involving Ariel Reidenbach, although Judge Adrine had asserted in para. 30(b) of his affidavit that alcohol was not implicated in the offense, he admitted at the formal hearing that Judge Stokes had reason to require her to undergo urinalysis since her drug dependence was involved in the petty theft charge Judge Stokes was hearing. As with the Philhower matter, ultimately Judge Adrine agreed had he known all the details he would not have included that case in his affidavit. (Hearing Tr., pp. 582-84)

Bullet point 4 corresponds with para. 30(c), the Isabel Bucsanyi matter. In para. 30(c), Judge Adrine criticized Judge Stokes for ordering that Isabel Bucsanyi undergo grief counseling. Yet, at the formal hearing of this matter he agreed that no one objected to Judge Stokes' suggestion that she undergo grief counseling (Hearing Tr., pp. 588-91) and he was aware of no law that supported any argument that such sentence was inappropriate. (Hearing Tr., pp. 591-92)

In bullet point 5, corresponding to Adrine Affidavit para. 30(e), Relator criticizes Judge Stokes for requiring a defendant, Matthew Lewandowski, to undergo a psychiatric evaluation, serve 44 days in jail and undergo intensive outpatient treatment after being convicted on charges for not having a drivers' license and failing to stop after an accident. Yet, when details of what occurred in open Court were made known to Judge Adrine, including defendant's own lawyer acknowledging a mental health history and that he could understand why the Court would order an evaluation at that time, even Judge Adrine ultimately admitted that Judge Stokes was justified in ordering the psychiatric evaluation. (Hearing Tr., pp. 631-34)

Though not mentioned by Relator in this section of his brief, listed in para. 30(f) by Judge Adrine in his affidavit, criticism is leveled at Judge Stokes because she referred a defendant in a civil matter to the Psychiatric Clinic for evaluation in the Donells Davis matter. When presented the details, Judge Adrine had to acknowledge that the Court Psychiatric Clinic employee, Rita Haynes reported that Mr. Davis had indicated that he was schizophrenic. No formal evaluation ever occurred. Agreeing this was a difficult situation, Judge Adrine conceded it was not inappropriate for Judge Stokes to have Ms. Haynes preliminarily interview Mr. Davis. (Depo. Tr., p. 408) Indeed, Mr. Davis was never held, committed or transported.

As is evident from the preceding specific references, and as Judge Adrine candidly admitted during the formal hearing in reference to the Affidavit attached to Relator's Motion, it contained inaccuracies. (Hearing Tr., pp. 780-81) Perhaps this affidavit is so inaccurate in respect to specific instances, because Judge Adrine attempted to accommodate Relator's request that he provide 6 new instances of alleged misconduct. (Hearing Tr., pp. 811-12)

Further, the June 25, 2013 incident referenced on page 6 of Relator's Brief and the Tabitha Toon matter also referenced on page 6 of Relator's Brief are not the subject of the formal complaint pending in the discipline matter.

III. LAW AND ARGUMENT

- A. Because a formal complaint predicated on the conduct which formed the basis for the Interim Remedial Suspension Order of December 18, 2014 has not been filed, such Order should be dissolved forthwith.

In this regard, Gov. Bar R. V(19) provides in pertinent part:

(C)(2) in addition to the motion allowed by division(C)(1) of this section [a motion to modify with or without leave], the respondent may file a motion requesting dissolution of the interim remedial suspension order, alleging that one hundred eighty days have elapsed since the entry of the order and the relator has failed to file with the Board a formal complaint predicated on the conduct that was the basis of the order. (App. 2)

Since 180 days have elapsed since the issuance of the December 18, 2014 Interim Remedial Suspension Order, such Order should be dissolved if Relator has failed to amend the then existing First Amended Complaint to include the matters asserted as specific incidents and which are not alleged in the First Amended Complaint.

As is demonstrated above in Section II, Statement of Pertinent Facts, 7 of the 19 specific incidents set forth in Relator's Motion, 5 of which having been addressed by Judge Adrine in his affidavit attached to Relator's Motion, have not become the subject of a complaint before the Board of Professional Conduct. As such, and pursuant to Gov. Bar R. V(5A), the December 18, 2014 Interim Remedial Suspension Order should be dissolved.

Indeed, Relator's counsel, Mr. Caligiuri admitted in the discipline proceeding that "[t]he Philhower allegation [Para. 30(a), Adrine affidavit] is not part of the Complaint, neither are any of the other cases in the affidavit." (Hearing Tr. p. 549)

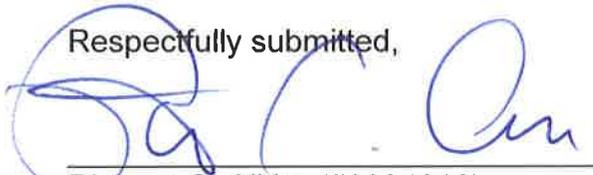

So, as of April 13, 2015, the day Mr. Caligiuri made that assertion on the record, it is beyond cavil that Relator has failed to amend the Complaint to assert cases cited by Judge Adrine in his affidavit and on which this Court relied in issuing the Interim Remedial Suspension Order.

IV. CONCLUSION

Accordingly, for the foregoing reasons, because 180 days have elapsed since the December 18, 2014 imposition of the interim remedial suspension and because Relator has failed to amend the then pending First Amended Complaint to include the grounds asserted in connection with his Motion for Interim Remedial Suspension, Respondent's instant motion should be granted.

APPENDIX 2

Section 19. Interim Remedial Suspension.

(A)(1) Motion; Response. Upon receipt of substantial, credible evidence demonstrating that a judicial officer or attorney has committed a violation of the Code of Judicial Conduct or Ohio Rules of Professional Conduct and poses a substantial threat of serious harm to the public, the Office of Disciplinary Counsel or appropriate certified grievance committee shall do both of the following:

(a) Prior to filing a motion for an interim remedial suspension, make a reasonable attempt to provide the judicial officer or attorney with notice, which may include notice by telephone, that a motion requesting an order for an interim remedial suspension will be filed with the Supreme Court.

(b) File a motion with the Supreme Court requesting that the Court order an interim remedial suspension. The Office of Disciplinary Counsel or appropriate certified grievance committee shall include, in its motion, proposed findings of fact, proposed conclusions of law, and other information in support of the requested order. Evidence relevant to the requested order shall be attached to or filed with the motion. The motion may include a request for an immediate, interim remedial suspension pursuant to the Rules of Practice of the Supreme Court of Ohio. The motion shall include a certificate detailing the attempts made by the relator to provide advance notice to the respondent of the relator's intent to file the motion. The motion also shall include a certificate of service on the respondent at the most recent address provided by the respondent to the Office of Attorney Services and at the last address of the respondent known to the relator, if different.

(2) After the filing of a motion for an interim remedial suspension, the respondent may file a memorandum opposing the motion in accordance with the Rules of Practice of the Supreme Court of Ohio. The respondent shall attach to or file with the memorandum any rebuttal evidence.

(B) Order. Upon consideration of the motion and any memorandum opposing the motion, the Supreme Court may enter an interim remedial order immediately suspending the respondent, pending final disposition of disciplinary proceedings predicated on the conduct threatening the serious harm or may order other action as the Court considers appropriate. If requested by the relator, the Supreme Court may order an immediate interim remedial suspension, prior to receipt of a memorandum opposing the relator's motion, pursuant to the Rules of Practice of the Supreme Court of Ohio. If an order is entered pursuant to this division, an attorney may be appointed pursuant to Section 26 of this rule to protect the interest of the suspended attorney's clients.

(C)(1) Motion for Dissolution or Modification of the Suspension. The respondent may request dissolution or modification of the order of suspension by filing a motion with the Supreme Court. The motion shall be filed within thirty days of entry of the order imposing the suspension, unless the respondent first obtains leave of the Supreme Court to file a motion beyond that time. The motion shall include a statement and all available evidence as to why the respondent no longer poses a substantial threat of serious harm to the public. A copy of the motion shall be served by the respondent on the relator. The relator shall have ten days from the date the motion is filed to file a response to the motion. The Supreme Court promptly shall review the motion after a response has been filed or after the time for filing a response has passed.

(2) In addition to the motion allowed by division (C)(1) of this section, the respondent may file a motion requesting dissolution of the interim remedial suspension order, alleging that one hundred eighty days have elapsed since the entry of the order and the relator has failed to file with the Board a formal complaint predicated on the conduct that was the basis of the order. A copy of the motion shall be served by the respondent on the relator. The relator shall have ten days from the date the motion is filed to file a response to the motion. The Supreme Court promptly shall review the motion after a response has been filed or after the time for filing a response has passed.

(D) Procedure. The Rules of Practice of the Supreme Court of Ohio shall apply to interim remedial suspension proceedings filed pursuant to this section.

(E) Duty of Clerk on Entering Order. Upon the entry of an order suspending or reinstating the respondent pursuant to this section, the clerk of the Supreme Court shall mail certified copies of the order as provided in Section 17 of this rule.

Upon receiving notice from the attorney or another party that an attorney admitted to the practice of law in Ohio has been subjected to discipline in another jurisdiction, the Office of Disciplinary Counsel shall obtain a certified copy of the disciplinary order and file the copy with the clerk of the Supreme Court.

(B)(1) Show Cause Order. Upon receipt of a certified copy of an order demonstrating that an attorney admitted to the practice of law in Ohio has been subjected to discipline in another jurisdiction, the Supreme Court shall issue a notice directed to the attorney containing both of the following:

(a) A copy of the order from the other jurisdiction;

(b) An order directing that the attorney notify the Supreme Court, within twenty days from the service of notice, of any claim by the attorney predicated upon the grounds set forth in division (C)(1) of this section that the imposition of the identical or comparable discipline in Ohio would be unwarranted and the reasons for that claim.

APPENDIX 3

the Board shall file a final certified report in accordance with Section 12(K) of this rule finding one of the following:

(i) That the relator has failed to establish the allegations of the complaint by clear and convincing evidence and recommending that the complaint be dismissed and that the Court enter an order terminating the interim default judgment suspension;

(ii) That there is clear and convincing evidence to establish that respondent is guilty of misconduct and recommending the respondent be indefinitely suspended from the practice of law, subject to reinstatement as provided in Section 25 of this rule;

(iii) That there is clear and convincing evidence to establish that respondent is guilty of misconduct and recommending the respondent be disbarred.

(b) If the Supreme Court grants a motion for leave to answer and remands the matter to the Board pursuant to division (C) of this section, the chair of the Board shall set aside a default entry and order a panel hearing at any time before the report and recommendation of the Board are certified to the Supreme Court.

(G) Duty of Relator. The relator shall have a continuing duty to preserve evidence necessary to establish the misconduct alleged in the complaint filed with the Board.

Section 15. Impairment Suspension; Termination of Suspension.

(A) Suspension Based on Adjudication of Mental Illness.

(1) After an answer has been filed or the time for filing an answer has elapsed, the Board forthwith shall certify a complaint to the Supreme Court if the complaint, answer, or other subsequent pleading alleges mental illness that substantially impairs the ability of the respondent to practice law and is supported by a certified copy of a journal entry of a court of competent jurisdiction adjudicating mental illness.

(2) Upon receipt of a certified complaint pursuant to division (A)(1) of this section, the Supreme Court may suspend the respondent from the practice of law.

(B) Suspension Based on Order of Treatment for Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse.

(1) After an answer has been filed or the time for filing an answer has elapsed, the Board forthwith shall certify a complaint to the Supreme Court if the complaint, answer, or subsequent pleading alleges the existence of alcohol or other drug abuse that substantially impairs the ability of the respondent to practice law and is supported by a certified copy of a journal entry of a court of competent jurisdiction issued pursuant to R.C. 5119.93.

(2) Upon receipt of a certified complaint pursuant to division (B)(1) of this section, the Supreme Court may suspend the respondent from the practice of law.

(C) Impairment Suspension Based on Examination and Finding.

(1) The Board or hearing panel, on its own motion or motion of either party, may order a medical, psychological, or psychiatric examination of the respondent if any of the following applies:

(a) The complaint, answer, or any subsequent pleading alleges an existing mental illness, alcohol and other drug abuse, or disorder that substantially impairs the ability of the respondent to practice law but is unsupported by a journal entry of a court of competent jurisdiction;

(b) Mental illness, alcohol and other drug abuse, or disorder that substantially impairs the ability of the respondent to practice law otherwise is placed in issue.

(2) The medical, psychological, or psychiatric examination of respondent shall be conducted by one or more physicians or psychologists designated by the Board or hearing panel. The findings of the physician or psychologist shall be presented to the Board or hearing panel as evidence and made available to both parties. The parties shall have an opportunity to file objections to the findings, and the hearing panel may conduct a hearing on the objections. After a hearing or if no objections are filed, the hearing panel shall prepare and submit a report and recommendation with the Board. The report may include a recommendation that the respondent be placed on an impairment suspension.

(3) If, after reviewing the report of the hearing panel, the Board concludes the record establishes that the respondent suffers from mental illness, alcohol and other drug abuse, or a disorder that substantially impairs the ability of the respondent to practice law, the Board shall prepare and certify a report and the record of the proceedings to the Supreme Court. The Board report shall be a matter of public record and shall be docketed by the clerk, but the report shall not be published or posted on the Supreme Court's web site. The Supreme Court may suspend the respondent from the practice of law and order the respondent's registration status changed to inactive. If the Court orders a impairment suspension under this section, further proceedings before the Board on any misconduct alleged in the formal complaint shall be stayed until such time as the respondent applies to the Board to have the impairment suspension terminated and a hearing panel determines that the application should be granted.

(D) Duty of Clerk on Entering Order. Upon the entry of a suspension order under this section, the clerk of the Supreme Court shall mail certified copies of the order as provided in Section 17 of this rule. A copy of the order shall be provided to the Office of Attorney Services, and that office shall change the registration of respondent to inactive status. The order shall be a matter of public record and shall be docketed by the clerk, but the order shall not be published or posted on the Supreme Court's web site.

(E) Termination. A suspension under this section may be terminated on application of the respondent to the Board and a showing of removal of the cause for the suspension. The director of the Board shall assign the application to a hearing panel. If the hearing panel finds by clear and convincing evidence that the suspension should be terminated and if the adjudication of a complaint alleging misconduct has been stayed as a result of the imposition of the suspension, the hearing panel shall conduct proceedings on the complaint in accordance with in Section 12 of this rule. The hearing panel shall prepare a written report of its findings and a recommendation with regard to the termination of the suspension and the disposition of any misconduct alleged in the formal complaint, including a recommended sanction for the misconduct that is found. The report of the hearing panel shall be submitted to the Board, and the report of the Board and the record of the proceedings shall be certified to the Supreme Court.
