Relator,
v.
Shawn Patrick Hooks,
Respondent.

Case No. 2014-2210
CLERK OF COURT
SUPREME COURT OF OHIO

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

On January 29, 2015, this court imposed an interim default judgment suspension upon respondent, Shawn Patrick Hooks, Attorney Registration No. 0079100, pursuant to Gov.Bar R. V(14)(B)(1). Respondent has not filed a timely motion for leave to answer pursuant to Gov.Bar R. V(14)(C), and relator has not filed a timely motion to initiate disbarment proceedings pursuant to Gov.Bar R. V(14)(D). Accordingly, respondent may be subject to an indefinite suspension pursuant to Gov.Bar R. V(14)(E)(1).

On consideration thereof, it is ordered by the court that the parties show cause why the interim default judgment suspension should not be converted into an indefinite suspension, and the disciplinary order so entered.

It is further ordered that any objections, together with a brief in support thereof, shall be due on or before 20 days from the date of this order. It is further ordered that an answer brief may be filed on or before 15 days after any brief in support of objections has been filed.

After a hearing on the objections, or if no objections are filed within the prescribed time, the court shall enter such order as it may find proper which may be the immediate suspension of respondent from the practice of law.

It is further ordered that all documents filed with this court in this case shall meet the filing requirements set forth in the Rules of Practice of the Supreme Court of Ohio, including requirements as to form, number, and timeliness of filings and further that unless clearly inapplicable, the Rules of Practice shall apply to these proceedings. All documents are subject to Sup.R. 44 through 47 which govern access to court records.

It is further ordered that service shall be deemed made on respondent by sending this order, and all other orders in this case, to respondent's last known address.
