Re: Disciplinary Counsel v. Eric Dorman Hall, Case No. 2011-1017

Dear Mr. Hall:

On March 1, 2012, the court suspended you from the practice of law for a period of twenty-four months, with six months stayed, and ordered that upon reinstatement you shall serve a one-year period of monitored probation. The court further ordered that you may not apply for reinstatement until you have filed proof with the court of restitution as follows: $1,500 to Tami Beckwith; $2,500 to Mike Henry; $700 to Stanley Fossett; $1,200 to Lisa Linton; $1,000 to Nicholas Lorence; $2,500 to Debra Hetman; and $2,500 to Nelson Corporan.

On August 18, 2015, you filed an application for reinstatement. The Supreme Court of Ohio has informed the clerk's office that it will not consider an application for reinstatement until the attorney has complied with the court's orders and Rules for the Government of the Bar of Ohio.

First, the court ordered you to file proof that you made restitution to seven individuals. There is nothing in the record demonstrating that you paid restitution in the amount of $1,000 to Nicholas Lorence. Please submit proof of this payment.

Second, the court's suspension order required you to comply with the CLE requirements for suspended attorneys as set forth in former Gov.Bar R. X(3)(G). That rule required you to complete one credit hour of continuing legal education for each month, or portion of a month, of suspension. As part of those hours, you were required to complete one credit hour related to professional conduct for each six months, or portion of six months, of the suspension. Because you were suspended on March 1, 2012, when you filed your application for reinstatement on August 18, 2015, you needed to have completed a total of 42 hours of CLE, including 7 hours for instruction in professional conduct.

The attached letter and CLE transcript from the Office of Attorney Services indicates that since March 1, 2012, you have reported completing 34.0 CLE hours, which includes 9.5 hour related to professional conduct. If you believe the information provided by the Office of Attorney Services is inaccurate, please contact that office to resolve the matter.

You may file additional documentation to support your compliance with the court's order and the Rules for the Government of the Bar. Note that all documents filed with the court in this case must meet the filing requirements set forth in the Rules of Practice of the Supreme Court of Ohio.

Please contact me at (614)387-9541 if you have any questions or comments.

Sincerely,
