Re: Disciplinary Counsel v. Magistrate Stephen Edwin Weithman, case No. 2014-0544

Dear Mr. Weithman:

On February 12, 2015, the Supreme Court of Ohio suspended you from the practice of law for a period of two years and stayed the entire suspension on conditions. The court's February 12, 2015 order required you to pay the cost of the proceedings before the Board of Commissioners on Grievances and Discipline in the amount of $1,617.65 within 90 days of the date of the court's order. The order further stated that after 90 days interest would accrue at the rate of 10% per annum. On August 7, 2015, the court found you in contempt, revoked the stay of the suspension, and suspended you until you pay the costs and accrued interest in full, apply for reinstatement, and have been granted reinstatement by the court. Copies of these orders are included with this letter.

The docket in your case indicates that you have not paid the costs set forth above. The court has asked the clerk's office to inform you that this debt will be certified to the Office of the Attorney General, Collections Enforcement Section, for collection proceedings if you do not pay it within 60 days from the date of this letter. The principal plus interest must be paid in full by cashier's check or money order. If you wish to have the clerk's office calculate the amount of interest owed, please contact us at 614-387-9530. When calling, please refer to the case number listed above.

Sincerely,

Melissa M. Ferguson
