The Supreme Court of Ohio
Case No. 2015-1894

No Come GARY N BAKST (Affiant) who under oath state as follows:

1. Affiant was a licensed attorney under Attorney Registration No. 0011142
2. Affiant submitted an application for retirement or resignation pursuant ro Gov Bar R. VI(7)
3. Pursuant to The Supreme Court of Ohio Order issued December 21, 2015 the resignation of affiant as an attorney and counsellor at law was accepted.
4. Further, affiant states that:
  - a. He has not practiced as an attorney since April, 2015
  - b. At that time he was not representing any clients or holding any clients funds and has not represented any clients since that time.
  - c. He is not currently representing any clients in any pending matters
  - d. Does not possess any papers of any clients or holding any fees of any clients in any pending matters.
  - e. He is not holding any fees to refund.
  - f. As there are no pending matters, there is no opposing counsel or adverse parties to notify.
5. Therefore, affiant states that he has complied with all orders of this Court.
6. I am no longer in possession of the Certificate of Admission
7. I inadvertently filed to meet the deadline for filing the Affidavit a result of being recently released from a half-way house and getting settled in to my current residence.

Further, affiant says naught.
