THE SUPREME COURT OF OHIO

Disciplinary Counsel
Columbus Bar Association,

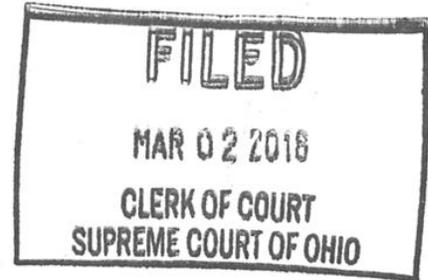

Case No. 2014-1404

Relators,

v.

Beverly J. Corner,

Respondent.

AFFIDAVIT IN COMPLIANCE
OF THE SUPREME COURT OF OHIO ORDER

STATE OF OHIO

SS:

COUNTY OF FRANKLIN

Now comes Respondent, Beverly J. Corner, who being first duly cautioned and sworn, deposes and says that the facts set forth in the foregoing Affidavit of Compliance are true and accurate to the best of her knowledge.

1. Respondent, Beverly J. Corner, notified all clients being represented in pending matters of her suspension and opposing counsel and parties on or after February 3, 2016. Further, Respondent informed clients to seek legal services elsewhere.
2. Delivered to all clients who requested the same, any papers or other property pertaining to the client or notified the client of suitable time and place where papers or other property may be obtained, informing them of the urgency.

3. Refunded any part of any fees or expenses paid in advance that are unearned or not paid and account for any trust money or property in my control.
4. Notification to opposing counsel or, in the absence of counsel, the adverse parties in pending litigation of my disqualification to act as an attorney after February 3, 2016, and file a notice of disqualification of law license with the court or agency before which litigation is pending for inclusion in the respective file or files.
5. Sent notices required by this order by certified mail with return address where communications may thereafter be directed to Beverly J. Corner.
6. File with the Clerk of this Court and disciplinary counsel of the Supreme Court this affidavit showing compliance with the Order, proof of service of the notices required herein, and setting forth the address, where I, Beverly J. Corner may receive communications.
 - a. The juvenile cases were indigent cases, and Megan Byerly the appointed counsel supervisor filed all the notices once Respondent, Beverly J. Corner, was blocked from e-filing each of those juvenile clients' Notices of Disqualification and new counsel was appointed through the appointment office. Respondent, Beverly J. Corner, mailed to the former clients' last known addresses the Notice of Disqualification.

b. All other clients', Beverly J. Corner, noticed clients' of her Disqualification in person or email of her disqualification and were provided with information to obtain other counsel.

7. Records shall be retained and maintained pursuant to the Order of the Court.
