E&P Onshore LLC

This Court accepted this case on Propositions of Law I, II, III, and V on July 22, 2015. However, this Court also stayed briefing on this matter pending the decision in Hupp v. Beck Energy Corporation, Case No. 2014-1933. This Court has since decided the Hupp case.

As explained in the Appellants' Memorandum in Support of Jurisdiction, this case has similarities with Hupp, but also has distinct factual and legal differences. Indeed, the accepted propositions of law are not otherwise decided in the Hupp decision. The issues remain ripe for review.

Accordingly, the Appellants respectfully move this Court to lift the stay and issue an order regarding a briefing schedule in this matter.

Respectfully submitted,
