GUIDELINES FOR PARTICIPANTS AT THE ASC ANNUAL MEETINGS

The following are standards for participating at the ASC Annual Meeting. If you have any questions, contact Chris Eskridge (ceskridge@unl.edu).

Introduction

By submitting a paper or poster or agreeing to participate in any other manner at the ASC meetings, you are making a professional commitment to fulfill these roles. Please see below for the professional expectations for specific roles.

Abstract Instructions: A typical abstract will summarize, in one paragraph of 200 words or less, the major aspects of your research, including: 1) the purpose of the study and the research problem(s) you investigate; 2) the design of the study; 3) major findings of your analysis; and 4) a brief summary of your interpretations and conclusions. Although not all abstracts will conform to this format, they should all contain enough information to frame the problem and orient the conclusions. Abstracts will be made public to all meeting attendees through the ASC program app.

Session Chairs

- If you would like to view the papers and/or abstracts in your session before the meeting please contact the authors direct. You will need to log into the submission site to obtain their names and emails.
- After you pick up your registration materials at the meeting, you may want to spend a few minutes locating the room in which your session will be held.
- Arrive at the meeting room in advance of the session you chair to greet the presenters, ensure that the room is set up properly, and that the audio-visual equipment is in place and functional.
- The session is 80 minutes long. Allow at least 10 minutes for questions and comments from the audience. Divide the remaining time evenly between the presenters. Inform them of the amount of time available to them at least two weeks before the meeting.
- Convene the session promptly at the announced time.
- Introduce each presenter with a title and institutional affiliation.
- Politely inform the presenters when their time limit is approaching. Many chairs hold up a note to the presenter at 5-minute, 1-minute, and the end of their allocated time.
- When the announced presentations have been completed, invite questions and comments from the audience. Some chairs invite speakers from the audience to identify themselves by name and institutional affiliation.
- Adjourn the session promptly at the announced time. This is very important as the participants in the next session will need time to set up as well so that session can start on time.
- If, for some reason, you are unable to attend your session as scheduled, please let each of the presenters and the discussant know AND designate an alternate chair. Also, contact the ASC office (asc@asc41.org) and inform them of the change.

Session Presenters

- Provide your own laptop for the session. An LCD projector and screen will be provided. No other equipment will be provided (ie., no overheads projectors, monitors, internet hookups, nor VCR/DVD equipment).
- If you wish to show a video or movie during a session you will need to bring your own speakers, they will not be provided at the meeting.
- ASC does not provide equipment or services to support virtual presentations and/or engagement. If a presenter needs to present virtually, they should work with someone within their session to set up.
- Practice your talk ahead of time so that you know it fits within your allotted time.
- Your chair will tell you in advance your allotted time. Sessions are scheduled for one hour and twenty minutes (80 minutes). Divide by the number of people participating in your session, allowing at least ten minutes for questions and answers.
- After you pick up your registration materials at the meeting, you may want to spend a few minutes locating the room in which your session will be held.
- Arrive in your scheduled room at least five minutes before the session is scheduled to start.
- Plan a brief presentation. The session chair will keep track of time and will alert you when you should begin wrapping up your talk. Pay attention to these cues. Begin concluding your talk when prompted by the chair.
- If, for some reason, you are unable to attend your session as scheduled, please let the chair know. Also, contact the ASC office (asc@asc41.org) and inform them of the change.

Roundtable Presenters

Typically, there are four presentations at the roundtable sessions. Each presenter will have about 15 minutes, but there will be a session chair who will establish the exact limit. This venue is different from the usual sessions in that they are more informal. Expect attendees to ask many questions during your presentation, and you as a presenter are encouraged to do the same when others present their materials. The operative roundtable session concepts are sharing and suggestion rather than critique, as roundtable presentations are typically works-in-progress. The authors of roundtable papers are looking for new ideas and alternate perspectives to help them with their research efforts, with the typical goal of then preparing a full-blown paper for future presentation and eventual publication.

Poster Session Presenters

Submissions for poster presentations require only a title, abstract and author information. Each poster display area is 4' x 8' and should display theoretical work or methods, data, policy analyses, or findings in a visually appealing poster format that will encourage questions and discussion about the material. Poster sessions are intended to present research in a format that is easy to scan and absorb quickly. This session is designed to facilitate more in-depth discussion of the research than is typically possible in a symposium format. The Poster Session will be held on the Thursday of the week of the meeting. ASC will not provide AV equipment for this session. There are no electrical outlets for user-supplied equipment. Pushpins will be provided. One poster submission per presenter is allowed.

- Prepare all poster material ahead of time.
- The poster presentation board is 4 feet high and 8 feet wide.
 - Be sure that your presentation fits on one poster.
- The success of your poster depends on the ability of viewers to readily understand the material. Therefore:
 - Keep the presentation simple.
 - Prepare a visual summary of the research with enough information to stimulate interested viewers (not a written research paper).
 - Use bulleted phases rather than narrative text.
 - Prepare distinct panels on the poster to correspond to the major parts of the presentation. For example, consider including a panel for each of the following: Introduction, methods, results, conclusions, and references.
 - Number each panel so that the reader can follow along in the order intended.
 - Ensure that all poster materials can be read from three feet away. We suggest an Arial font with bold characters. Titles and headings should be at least 1 inch high. DO NOT use a 12-point font.
 - Prepare a title board for the top of the poster space indicating the title and author(s). The lettering for this title should be no less than 1.5 inches high.
 - Do not mount materials on heavy board. These may be difficult to keep in position on the poster board.
- Arrive early to set up. Each poster will be identified with a number. This number corresponds to the number printed in the program for your presentation.
- Make sure that at least one author is going to attend the poster for the entire duration of the panel session.
- Remove materials promptly at the end of the session.
- If you are unable to attend the poster session, please email meeting@asc41.org

Graduate Student Poster Competition: Those who wish to enter the Graduate Student Poster Competition should adhere to the directions above for presenting a poster. In addition, such participants must self-declare their request for award consideration at the time of submission by marking the appropriate box on this poster submission form.

Graduate Student Poster Competition (continued): To be considered for this award, participants must also send a brief (2-3 minute) YouTube video to the Committee Chair (their information can be found on the Call for Papers). The award committee will judge submissions primarily on scientific merit and secondarily on visual appeal. Ideally submissions should be as complete as possible, with a question, method, data, and (preliminary) results and implications. Awards (1st, 2nd, and 3rd place) will be announced at the upcoming Annual Meeting. This competition will be open only to graduate student members. Posters co-authored with faculty are not eligible for awards. If you have any questions, please email meeting@asc41.org.

Lightning Talks

These sessions are a series of 5-minute talks/presentations by different speakers, each introducing a topic or idea very quickly. Lightning Talks are a way to share information about diverse topics from several presenters, while still captivating the audience. Each presentation should consist of a maximum of 3 to 5 PowerPoint slides or prompt cards, with a total of one or two key messages for the entire presentation. Each slide should consist of a few words and one primary image. Lightning talks are ideal for research and theory development in its early stages. See the Lightning Talks Guide for further information. Submissions for a lightning talk full panel session must include a title and abstract for the entire panel as well as titles, abstracts, and author information for all talks/presentations. Each panel should contain between 6-7 talks/presentations.

LIGHTNING TALKS Sharing and learning at lightning speed

What is a lightning talk?

A lightning talk is a brief 5-minute presentation that focuses on an idea or topic. Lightning talks can also provide an update on key findings. If they are well organized, lightning talk sessions can be excellent opportunities to promote conversations and future collaborations.

Lightning Talk sessions will be organized around themes or ideas. Each session will include 6-7 presentations with time for Q&A after all presentations have been completed.

Individuals can either submit their lightning talk as an individual presentation or they can organize their own lightning talk session around a specific theme or idea.

Here are some helpful tips for making your lightning talks successful:

- 1) Make your point and make it early.
- 2) Don't spend too much time on extraneous details. Focus.
- 3) Practice! Practice! Practice! A brief script is a good idea. Practice reading your script before your session. It's okay if you go under 5 minutes, but not longer.
- 4) PowerPoint is a great tool for presenting lightning talks, but if you use slides make sure to limit your slides to 3-5 visually appealing slides with only 1-2 words per slide.

To ensure the lightning talk sessions run effectively a chair will be assigned to each session. The chair will keep time during the lightning talk sessions to ensure that all presenters adhere to the 5-minute rule. If there has not been a chair assigned to your session one can be chosen from the presenters in the session.

Following these guidelines will ensure that your lightning talk session will be stimulating, enjoyable, and exciting.

Please do not hesitate to contact the program co-chairs with any questions.

Thank you,

CODE OF CONDUCT

Introduction

As an organization, we uphold our Code of Ethics (<https://asc41.org/about-asc/core-documents/#toggle-id-6>). Section II #5 of the Code states, "In their professional activities, ASC members are committed to enhancing the general well-being of societies and of the individuals and groups within them. Thus, ASC members have an obligation to avoid forms of social injustice such as discrimination, oppression, or harassment." Section II #10 of the Code states, "ASC members do not force, coerce, or obtain through manipulation personal favors, sexual activity or economic or professional advantages from any person including faculty, students, research respondents, clients, patients, research assistants, clerical staff or colleagues. ASC members will not engage in workplace harassment, aggression, or bullying of any kind."

We remind all participants in ASC activities during the annual meeting that the Code of Ethics will be upheld so that all its members enjoy a welcoming environment free from unlawful discrimination, harassment and retaliation. We refer to this as the Code of Conduct.

If you witness potential harm to a conference participant, please be proactive, to the extent that you are comfortable, in helping to present or mitigate that harm.

Unacceptable conduct

Threatening physical or verbal actions and disorderly or disruptive conduct will not be tolerated. Harassment, including verbal comments relating to gender, sexual orientation, disability, race, ethnicity, religion, age, national origin, gender identity or expression, veteran status or other protected statuses, or sexual images in public spaces, deliberate intimidation, stalking, unauthorized or inappropriate photography or recording, inappropriate physical contact, and unwelcome sexual attention, will not be tolerated.

Please mail to American Society of Criminology, 921 Chatham Ln., Ste. 108, Columbus, OH 43221, email to ncoldiron@asc41.org, or fax to (614) 826-3031.

All workshops will be held at the San Francisco Marriott Marquis.

No laptops provided. Power strips will be available for all workshops. Enrollment limit: 50 per workshop

- Choice 1 Title: Running the Gauntlet: Succeeding in a Field Built upon Quantitative Standards
Instructor: Jamie J. Fader, Temple University (Contact: jfader@temple.edu)
Date & Time: Tuesday, November 12th, Time 12-4 P.M. Place: Salon 11, Lower B2 Level

This workshop is targeted primarily for early career scholars and will contain practical/ strategic and methodological strategies for navigating a quant-dominated field. Subtopics might include: how to respond to (or write to prevent) common reviewer critiques, how to build a research and funding pipeline that includes qualitative research, and how to be an advocate for your research in a field that often devalues qualitative work. More senior scholars are also encouraged to attend and share your own strategies for succeeding while using qualitative methods and to strategize for advocacy efforts that may help bridge the quant-qual divide in our field.

- Choice 2 Title: Synthetic Control Time Series Experiments: The Case-Study Approach to Causal Inference
Instructor: Bradley J. Bartos, University of Arizona (Contact: bartos@arizona.edu)
Date & Time: Tuesday, November 12th, Time 1-5 P.M. Place: Salon 10, Lower B2 Level

The Synthetic Control Method is an increasingly popular approach to quasi-experimental causal inference and policy evaluation. The method involves the construction of a control time series which optimally mimics the characteristics of the treated series up to the point of the intervention as a weighted combination of less-than-ideal, but uncontaminated “donor pool” units. Because the synthetic control is constructed from a set of uncontaminated controls, the post intervention synthetic series is intended to approximate the treated series "had the intervention never occurred". After briefly situating the method within causal inference and quasi-experimental literatures, the workshop will walk participants through real-world applications of the method, including replications of peer-reviewed synthetic control studies. The replications and illustrations will familiarize participants with the process and implementation of the synthetic control routine, from data cleaning and setup through postestimation procedures. Examples will also highlight common pitfalls and researcher checks that are essential to valid inference. The examples presented in this workshop are derived from a book project on synthetic control designs currently out for review. All necessary data, .ado, and .do files will be provided by the instructor prior to the workshop. Participants will need to bring laptops with stata installed to follow along with the examples presented.

- Choice 3 Title: Using Topic Models to Qualitatively Code Large Amounts of Text
Instructors: Danielle Wallace, Arizona State University and Connor Stewart, Arizona State University
(Contact: danielle.wallace@asu.edu)
Date & Time: Tuesday, November 12th, Time 12-4 P.M. Place: Salon 12, Lower B2 Level

Given advances in computing and storage, qualitative researchers are now having to grapple with massive amounts of text data, which may be too difficult or invite too many errors to code by hand. In these circumstances, the data science technique of topic modeling may be useful. Topic modeling is machine learning technique that aids in qualitative coding of different forms of text documents by examining the documents for patterns in words or phrases, then clustering those words and phrases into “topics” or “themes.” Two types of topic models are most commonly used in criminology: structured topic modeling and biterm topic modeling. This workshop will expose attendees to the basics of topic modeling and give attendees hands on practice with real text data available on ICSPR. During the first part of the workshop, attendees will receive an overview of topic modeling generally, with a focus on structured topic modeling and biterm topic modeling. Then using RStudio, during the second part of the workshop, attendees will be directly working with two sets of text data to thematically code the data using both structured topic and biterm topic models. To participate in the hands-on activities, attendees should have some exposure to and knowledge of RStudio and the most recent version of RStudio on their computer to use in the workshop. All code and data will be provided.

This workshop includes an additional supply fee of $20.
