

The Supreme Court of Ohio

Kimani E. Ware

v.

Victor V. Viglucci, Prosecutor

Case No. 2023-1354

IN MANDAMUS

E N T R Y

This cause came on for further consideration upon the submission of the original documents in the certified-mail envelopes postmarked June 22 and July 5, 2022, received by respondent from relator.

It is ordered by the court that relator's requests for statutory damages and court costs are denied.

It is further ordered by the court that relator is sanctioned for frivolous conduct under S.Ct.Prac.R. 4.03(A) and Civ.R. 11. Respondent shall submit a detailed bill of reasonable expenses and attorney fees incurred in this action within 20 days of the date of this entry and relator shall be assessed double costs of this action.

It is further ordered that respondent's request to declare relator a vexatious litigator is granted and Kimani E. Ware is found to be a vexatious litigator under S.Ct.Prac.R. 4.03(B). Accordingly, it is ordered that Kimani E. Ware is prohibited from continuing or instituting legal proceedings in this court without first obtaining leave. Any request for leave shall be submitted to the clerk of this court by delivery service, by mail addressed to the Clerk of the Supreme Court, or in person for the court's review.

It is further ordered that if Kimani E. Ware is granted leave to continue or institute legal proceedings in this court, he is prohibited from doing so until he has paid (1) the filing fee or security for costs required by S.Ct.Prac.R. 3.04 and 3.05, (2) respondent's expenses and attorney fees associated with this action, and (3) the double-cost assessment.
