: CASE NO.
: GOV. BAR R. VII §5(a) MOTION
: FOR INTERIM CEASE AND DESIST
: ORDER

Now comes the Lorain County Bar Association, by and through the undersigned Bar Counsel, and, pursuant to Gov. Bar R. VII § 5(a)(A)(1)(b), respectively moves this Honorable Court for an Interim Cease and Desist Order against Defendants, King Ayetey Zubaidah, fka Gerald McGee, and STAND, Inc., that they immediately cease and desist engaging in the unauthorized practice of law.

For cause, Relator shows as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

This civil action is brought in the name of the Unauthorized Practice of Law Committee (hereinafter, "The UPL Committee"), for the Lorain County Bar Association (hereinafter, "Relator"), pursuant to Gov. Bar R VII.

John D. Pincura, III, Chair of The UPL Committee (hereinafter, "Chairman Pincura"), has requested that Bar Counsel to the Lorain County Bar Association, D. Chris Cook (hereinafter, "Bar Counsel"), commence proceedings against Respondent, King Ayetey Zubaidah, fka Gerald McGee (hereinafter, "King Zubaidah"), and STAND, Inc. (hereinafter, "STAND"), for the unauthorized practice of law in violation of Gov. Bar R VII.

II. JURISDICTION

Jurisdiction of the Board of Commissioners (hereinafter, "The Board") is invoked pursuant to the provisions of Gov. Bar VII, §2 & §5(a).

III. PARTIES

Pursuant to Gov. Bar R VII, §5(a), this Motion is commenced in the name of The UPL Committee of Relator, by Chairman Pincura and Bar Counsel, attorneys registered and granted Active Status under Gov. Bar VI, both being in good-standing.

Separate Defendant, King Zubaidah is an individual residing in the City of Lorain, County of Lorain, State of Ohio and, upon information and belief, King Zubaidah is a non-attorney and is not licensed to practice law in the State of Ohio, or in any other jurisdiction. (See Exhibit "1," certified copy of Ohio Supreme Court Certificate verifying non-admission, attached and incorporated herein.)

King Zubaidah's given birth name is Gerald McGee, (hereinafter, "Mr. McGee") (See Exhibit "2," Certificate of Birth, attached and incorporated herein.) On or about April 25,

1996 Mr. McGee applied to the Lorain County Probate Court for an official name change because his Irish surname did not accurately reflect his African heritage or culture and on June 4, 1996 Mr. McGee's name was officially changed via court order to King Ayettey Zubaidah. (See Exhibit "3," Entry Ordering Change of Name, attached and incorporated herein.)

Separate Defendant, STAND, Inc. (hereinafter, "STAND"), is a for-profit domestic corporation. On or about April 15, 2008 King Zubaidah filed and recorded Articles of Incorporation for Stand with the Ohio Secretary of State. (See Exhibit "4," State of Ohio Articles of Incorporation, attached and incorporated herein.)

The stated purpose for which Stand (Striving Towards A New Day!) was formed was "To improve the quality of life in our communities and enhance educational and economic opportunities for all Americans." (See Exhibit "4.")

On or about February 14, 1986, Gerald McGee, kna King Zubaidah, was convicted and sentenced for one count of aggravated trafficking in drugs, a felony of the 3rd degree, in violation of R.C. 2925.03(A)(1). (See Exhibit "5," certified copy of Judgment Entry of Conviction and Sentence, attached and incorporated herein.)

IV. PROPOSED FINDINGS OF FACT

(THE CALHOUN CASE)

Defendants engaged in the unauthorized practice of law by providing legal advice to a criminal defendant, Dennis A. Calhoun, Jr. (hereinafter, "Mr. Calhoun"), in a case involving two counts of rape and one count of gross sexual imposition. (Hereinafter, the "Calhoun Case.") (See Exhibit "6," Docket Sheet, attached and incorporated herein.)

Despite Mr. Calhoun's representation by legal counsel, Mr. Calhoun's mother, Terri Blackburn entered into a membership agreement with Stand on July 6, 2009 in order for King Zubaidah to assist in her son's representation. (See Exhibit "7," Calhoun, General Letter of Introduction, signed July 6, 2009.)

On or about July 6, 2009 the same day the STAND contract was signed, Mr. Calhoun was found guilty of all charges.

On or about July 17, 2009 counsel for Mr. Calhoun received correspondence from King Zubaidah stating that he and Stand represented Mr. Calhoun and his family. (See Exhibit "8," King Zubaidah Correspondence, dated July 17, 2009.)

This correspondence accused Mr. Calhoun's legal counsel of being verbally abusive and unprofessional and King Zubaidah quoted and applied Disciplinary Rule 7-102 and Ethical Consideration 7-10 to the factual circumstances surrounding Mr. Calhoun's Case. (See Exhibit "8.")

In addition, King Zubaidah forward this letter to the Disciplinary Counsel seeking to have disciplinary action taken against Mr. Calhoun's counsel.

After speaking with Mr. Calhoun's mother regarding the initial correspondence from King Zubaidah, counsel received a second letter, on or about July 21, 2009, again quoting ethical considerations and disciplinary rules. (See Exhibit "9," King Zubadaih Correspondence, dated July 21, 2009.)

As a result of these letters from Respondents, on or about September 10, 2009 counsel for Mr. Calhoun, Attorney David Nehr (hereinafter, "Attorney Nehr"), wrote a letter to Relator advising Relator of Defendant's involvement, intrusion, and interference with the defense of Mr. Calhoun. (See Exhibit "10," Letter from Attorney Nehr to Relator.)

In his letter to Relator, Attorney Nehr alleges that Defendants committed the following acts that constitute or may constitute the unauthorized practice of law:

- A. Defendants held themselves out as “representing” Mr. Calhoun;
- B. Defendants made legal conclusions and analysis regarding putative disciplinary violations;
- C. Defendants had “advised other clients, against their attorney’s advice, resulting in long periods of incarceration of the defendants when the defendants followed Mr.Zubaidah’s advice, rather than their own attorney’s;
- D. King Zubaidah entered a restricted holding-cell area (open only to attorneys, probation officers, prisoners, and sheriff deputies), to have “dialogues” with “several other defendants” in the holding cell “about their cases.

(See Exhibit “10.”)

Attorney Nehr concludes in his letter to Relator that Defendants “intends to practice law without being an attorney . . .” and requests that Relator institute a UPL claim. Id.

Further, on September 15, 2009 Attorney Nehr forwarded a follow-up letter to Relator regarding the activities of Defendants. (See Exhibit “11,” attached and incorporated herein.)

In this correspondence, Attorney Nehr alleges that King Zubaidah spoke to “Mr. Daniels” in the hallway and “requested information on the pending case, and discussed an appellate issue . . . and stated the he [King Zubaidah] was willing to assist my client with the appellate process . . .” (See Exhibit “11.”)

As a result of the forgoing, Relator alleges that Respondents have engaged in and will continue to engage in the unauthorized practice of law and that an Interim Cease and Desist Order against such practice is warranted.

(THE WHITE CASE)

On or about June 16, 2009 Respondents engaged in the unauthorized practice of law by holding themselves out as representing the family of criminal defendant Eric White (hereinafter, "Mr. White"), in a case involving charges of Felonious Assault with a "drive by shooting" firearm specification (hereinafter, the "White Case.") (See Exhibit "12," Docket Sheet and Exhibit "13," White General Letter of Introduction, signed June 16, 2009.)

Despite counsel's appointment to represent Mr. White, his mother appeared at counsel's office on the morning of July 11, 2009 accompanied by King Zubaidah, to discuss the pursuit of defenses of Mr. White that were unlawful, including but not limited to, the introduction of false documents to create an alibi and the insinuation that key witnesses could be bribed. (See Exhibit "14," Letter from Attorney Anthony Rich (hereinafter, "Attorney Rich"), to the Supreme Court's UPL Board and Relator, dated January 8, 2010.)

On December 3, 2009 the day before a critical pre-trial in Mr. White's case wherein a trial date was to be set, Attorney Rich received a letter from King Zubaidah citing law, ethical canons and "comparative" cases. (See Exhibit "15," Letter to Attorney Rich from King Zubiadah.)

Due to King Zubaidah's involvement in Mr. White's case, Attorney Rich filed a Motion to Withdraw as Mr. White's attorney, which was granted after a hearing. (Exhibit "14.")

In his letter to the UPL Board and Relator, Attorney Rich alleges that Respondents committed the following acts that constitute or may constitute the unauthorized practice of law:

A. Defendants were “counseling” his client, Mr. White;

B. Defendants were “inherently providing legal advice.”;

C. Defendants advocated on Mr. White’s behalf by drafting documents that “cites law, ethical canons, and comparative cases.” (Exhibit “15.”)

D. Defendants advocated on Mr. White’s behalf by sending a letter to a Judge James Miraldi of the Lorain County Court of Common Pleas requesting a bond reduction and citing “comparative” cases. (Exhibit “16,” Letter to Judge Miraldi from King Zubaidah, dated)

E. Defendants’ letter to Judge Miraldi “spurred” him to write Attorney Rich and advise that he could “move the court to amend the bond.” (See Exhibit “17,” Letter to Attorney Rich.)

Relator alleges that Respondents have engaged in and will continue to engage in the unauthorized practice of law and that an Interim Cease and Desist Order against such practice is warranted.

(THE HARRIS CASE)

On or about April 16, 2009 Respondents engaged in the unauthorized practice of law by holding themselves out as representing the family of criminal defendant Isaiah S. Harris (hereinafter, “Mr. Harris”) in a case involving charges of Domestic Violence, Felonious Assault, Kidnaping, Rape, Burglary, Intimidation, and TPO Violations. (hereinafter, the “Harris Case.”) (See Exhibits “18(A),” “18(B),” “19(C),” Docket Sheets and Exhibit “19,” Harris General Letter of Introduction, signed April 16, 2009.)

On or about May 1, 2009 King Zubaidah, as CEO and President of STAND, drafted a letter to Judge Christopher Rothgery of the Lorain County Court of Common Pleas regarding Mr. Harris' case. (See Exhibit "20," Letter to Judge Rothgery, dated May 1, 2009.)

This letter discussed the Respondents role in Mr. Harris' representation and advocated to Judge Rothgery regarding Mr. Harris' innocence.

Prior to Mr. Harris' trial, the Court indicated that Mr. Harris would receive a three year concurrent prison term (minimum sentence) in exchange for a guilty plea to all charges. (See Exhibit "14," letter from Attorney Rich at page 3.)

On the day of the trial, the offer was increased to four years. Id.

Despite the strenuous objections of Mr. Harris' legal counsel, Mr. Harris rejected said offer and proceeded to trial on or about May 14, 2009 on multiple consolidated cases. (Exhibits "18(A) through (C) and "14.")

In this case, the Court expressly questioned whether there was a communication problem between counsel and Mr. Harris. (Exhibit "14.") King Zubaidah was present throughout the duration of the trial and at one point had a heated exchange with Mr. Harris' father due to the belief that King Zubaidah was "assisting in Brainwashing" Mr. Harris. (Exhibit "14.")

Mr. Harris was ultimately found guilty of several charges and sentenced to an aggregate prison term of 23 ½ years. (Exhibits "18(A) through (C).")

In his letter to the UPL Board and Relator, Attorney Rich alleges that Respondents committed the following acts that constitute or may constitute the unauthorized practice of law:

- A. Defendants were "counseling" his client, Mr. Harris;
- B. Defendants were encouraging Mr. Harris to "contest the charges in direct contrast to my legal advice."

C. Mr. Harris' father, Harold Harris, and King Zubaidah got into a "heated exchange" when Harold Harris accused King Zubaidah of "brainwashing my son."

D. The communication problem between Attorney Rich and his client, Mr. Harris, and Mr. Harris' "refusal to listen to counsel" was "absolutely, positively, and unequivocally exacerbated, encouraged and endorsed by Mr. Zubaidah."

E. Mr. Zubaidah's "legal system guidance to his client Mr. Harris proved to be catastrophic as Mr. Harris was found guilty of several charges and sentenced to . . . 23 ½ years, i.e. 20 ½ more than if he would have taken [Attorney Rich's] advice."

(Exhibit "14.")

Relator alleges that Respondents have engaged in and will continue to engage in the unauthorized practice of law and that an Interim Cease and Desist Order against such practice is warranted.

(JUDGE MIRALDI CASE)

On or about November 24, 2010 Judge James L. Miraldi (hereinafter, "Judge Miraldi"), of the Lorain County Court of Common Pleas sent a correspondence to Relator documenting his concerns about the conduct of Defendants in a criminal case pending before the Judge. (See Exhibit "21," Letter to Relator from Judge Miraldi, dated November 24, 2010, attached and incorporated herein.)

Judge Miraldi advised Relator that "it has come to my attention more than once that [Defendants have] been advising criminal defendants or their family members and interfering with the advice of the defendant's counsel." (Emphasis added.) (Exhibit "21.")

Judge Miraldi advised Relator that Respondents wrote a letter to the Judge, dated November 6, 2010 wherein they advocated for a bond reduction for a criminal defendant, Carey A. Bason (hereinafter, "Mr. Bason.") (See Exhibit "22," Letter to Judge Miraldi from Respondents.)

In this letter to Judge Miraldi from Respondents, they "petitioned the court on behalf of Carey A. Bason," compared and analyzed comparative cases; accused Judge Miraldi of discrimination; and, referred to the Code of Judicial Conduct.

Relator alleges that Defendants have engaged in and will continue to engage in the unauthorized practice of law and that an Interim Cease and Desist Order against such practice is warranted.

V. PROPOSED CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

No person shall be permitted to practice as an attorney and counselor at law unless he has been admitted to the bar by order of the supreme court in compliance with its prescribed and published rules. R.C. 4705.01. Rendering legal services for another in Ohio by a person not admitted to practice in Ohio is the unauthorized practice of law. Gov. Bar R. VII §2(A).

The practice of law is not restricted to appearances in court; it also encompasses giving legal advice and counsel. Cleveland Bar Assn. v. Misch (1998), 82 Ohio St.3d 256. Persons not licensed to practice law in Ohio are also prohibited from holding themselves out "in any manner as an attorney at law" or from representing that they are authorized to practice law "orally or in writing, directly or indirectly." R.C. 4705.07(A)(1) and (2); Disciplinary Counsel v. Pratt (2010) 127 Ohio St. 3d 293.

The unauthorized practice occurs when a layperson renders legal advice in the pursuit of managing another person's legal actions and proceedings before courts of law. Richland Cty. Bar Assn. v. Clapp (1998), 84 Ohio St.3d 276.

The Supreme Court has repeatedly held that non-lawyers engage in the unauthorized practice of law by attempting to represent the legal interests of others and advise them of their legal rights during settlement negotiations. Disciplinary Counsel v. Robson (2007), 116 Ohio St.3d 318; Akron Bar Assn. v. Bojonell (2000), 88 Ohio St. 3d 154; Cleveland Bar Assn. v. Moore (2000), 87 Ohio St. 3d 583.

A non-lawyer was found to have engaged in the unauthorized practice of law because he routinely sent letters to the attorneys for the plaintiff in debt-related litigation in an effort to settle the dispute on behalf of his defendant-clients. Cincinnati Bar Assn. v. Telford (1999), 85 Ohio St.3d 111.

In Cleveland Bar Assn. v. Henley (2002), 95 Ohio St.3d 91, the Supreme Court held that where a non-lawyer purported to negotiate legal claims on behalf of others and advised them of their legal rights and the terms and conditions of settlement, he engaged in the unauthorized practice of law. The fact that he received no remuneration for his actions was irrelevant.

Finally, Relator recently prosecuted the matter of Lorain County Bar Association v. Kocak (2009), 121 Ohio St.3d 396, wherein the Court found that Mr. Kocak had engaged in the unauthorized practice of law by “representing” his girlfriend in a collection case; filing pleadings with multiple courts; and using a power of attorney to justify his actions.

VI. CONCLUSION

On or about December 31, 2009 Chairman Pincura sent a letter to King Zubaidah demanding that he “cease and desist” with further unauthorized practice of law. (See Exhibit “23,” Letter from Chairman Pincura to Defendants, attached and incorporated herein.)

On or about January 2, 2010 King Zubaidah replied to Chairman Pincura; misrepresented Defendant STAND’s status as “a non-profit;” admitted to accepting “donations;” and threatened to find the allegation of UPL meritless unless provided with the names of the attorneys making the allegations. (See Exhibit “24,” Letter to Chairman Pincura from Defendants, attached and incorporated herein.)

Based upon the information provided to the undersigned, a letter was sent to Respondents requesting a meeting to discuss the concerns of Relator. Respondents replied to Relator on July 24, 2010 and on August 11, 2010 Bar Counsel, King Zubaidah, and two Board members of STAND met at Bar Counsel’s office. (See Exhibit “25,” Affidavit of Bar Counsel, attached and incorporated herein.)

At the meeting of August 11, 2010 Bar Counsel advised Respondents of the complaints against them and requested that they enter into an agreement with Relator to cease and desist engaging in the unauthorized practice of law. (Exhibit “25.”)

Respondents categorically rejected Relator’s efforts to reach an amicable resolution by way of a Cease and Desist Agreement. (Id.)

As a result of the forgoing conduct, including but not limited to the following, Relator charges Respondents with the unauthorized practice of law:

1. Respondents interference in the defense of serious criminal cases;
2. Respondents holding themselves out as “representing” individuals;

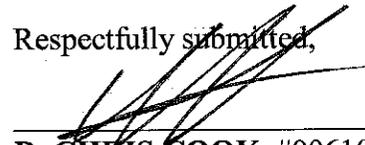

3. Respondents advocacy on behalf of individuals they “represent,” including but not limited to: petitioning judges, writing to attorneys, analyzing comparative cases, advocating for bond reductions, citing case law, disciplinary rules, and ethical cannons; and

4. Upon information and belief, accepting “donations” from individuals in order to “assist” with their criminal cases.

Given the above, on March 24, 2011 Relator served upon Respondents a copy of this Motion and advised Respondents that said Motion would be filed in the Supreme Court of Ohio on March 25, 2011.

WHEREFORE, Relator requests an Interim Cease and Desist Order from the Supreme Court of Ohio enjoining Respondents, King Ayetey Zubaidah, fka Gerald McGee, and STAND, Inc., from engaging in the unauthorized practice of law; from petitioning any court or judge on behalf of any “client;” from contacting any attorney, other than their own, regarding any pending criminal matter; and any and all other and further relief that is just and equitable in the premises.

I have enclosed a signed copy of Dennis A. Calhoun being assisted as a Stand Inc. member dated and signed by his mother Terry Blackburn on July 07, 2009. Ms. Blackburn has informed Stand Inc. (Striving Towards A New Day!) of your unprofessional verbal out lashing towards her during their supporting Dennis A. Calhoun Jr. in his court proceedings.

DR7-102. REPRESENTING A CLIENT WITHIN THE BOUNDS OF THE LAW.
(A) In his representation of a client, a lawyer shall not: (5) knowingly make a false statement of law or fact. EC7-10: The duty of a lawyer to represent his client with zeal does not militate against his concurrent obligation to treat with consideration all persons involved in the legal process and to avoid the infliction of needless harm.

There were statements made by you Mr. Nehr that are unacceptable. "You are never going to see your son again." "Are you fucking crazy?" Ms. Terry Blackburn was very disturbed emotionally and mentally injured by your verbal abuse towards her.

You also approached Ms. Terry Blackburn with a plea bargain of fifth teen (15) to life with no parole eligibility on or about June of 2009. All this after Dennis A. Calhoun Jr. and her meet with you sometime in October or November of 2008, and you stated that the prosecution had no evidence for a conviction. You have deliberately taken this family on an emotional roller coaster ride.

In 2007 the Court reemphasized the Ohio Rules of Professional Conduct that recognizes each lawyer's obligation to engage in activities that promote the common good, including the provision of support for representation to indigent clients. A lawyer should be mindful of deficiencies in the administration of justice and of the fact that the poor cannot afford adequate legal services.

The last and final statement made by you that drove Ms. Terry Blackburn to seek other assistance for her son's freedom was "You're a fucking felon too" "His dad being a fucking felon didn't help him either". "Its pass guilty or innocent, it doesn't matter."

These comments were made on or about July 07, 2009. These types of statements made by a defense attorney are ludicrous to say the least.

There were witnesses to your making these statements too Ms. Terry Blackburn on both occasions. Lisa Young and Dennis A. Calhoun Sr. were present on or about July 07, 2009.

Best regards,

King Ayettey Zubaidah

Mr. Attorney David Nehr,

On July 20th, 2009 I spoke with Ms. Terry Blackburn the mother of Dennis Calhoun Jr. case # 08CR076796. Ms. Blackburn informed me that in her conversation with you minutes earlier before she spoke with me, that you had told her that you were going to try and get her a copy of Dennis A. Calhoun Jr. transcript.

In your conversation with Ms. Blackburn you also stated that Judge Burge might be upset after seeing the letter written by me, King Ayyettey Zubaidah/CEO of Stand Inc. on 07/17/2009 concerning your conduct towards Ms. Blackburn and their family during your handling of Dennis A. Calhoun Jr. case.

Then Mr. Nehr, before ending your conversation with Ms. Blackburn you made another insulting statement. You said "You're going to cover your own ass".

CANON 5

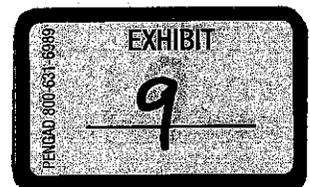

A Lawyer Should Exercise Independent Professional Judgment on Behalf of a Client

ETHICAL CONSIDERATIONS

EC 5-1 The professional judgment of a lawyer should be exercised, within the bounds of the law, solely for the benefit of his client and free of compromising influences and loyalties. Neither his personal interests, the interests of other clients, nor the desires of third persons should be permitted to dilute his loyalty to his client.

Interests of a Lawyer That May Affect His Judgment

EC 5-2 A lawyer should not accept proffered employment if his personal interests or desires will, or there is a reasonable probability that they will, affect adversely the advice to be given or services to be rendered the prospective client. After accepting employment, a lawyer carefully should refrain from acquiring a property right or assuming a position that would tend to make his judgment less protective of the interests of his client.

If my common sense serves me right! I would think that these ETHICAL CONSIDERATIONS are saying that the ass you should be concerned about covering is your clients.

PLEASE Mr. Nehr perform your duties to Mr. Dennis A. Calhoun Jr. according to your professional duties and you'll make your client happy, Judge Burge happy, and last but not least, yourself Happy.

Professionally,

King Ayettey Zubaidah

Re: Unauthorized Practice of Law claim
Stand, Inc./King Ayettey Zubaidah
1623 West 22nd Street
Lorain, OH 44052

This letter is to serve as a request for an investigation by the Lorain County Bar Association's Committee on the Unauthorized Practice of Law into the actions of an individual known as King Ayettey Zubaidah. During the last year, I have represented Dennis A. Calhoun Jr. in a criminal case alleging two counts of rape and one count of gross sexual imposition. On July 1 to July 2, 2009, I represented Mr. Calhoun in a bench trial regarding these charges.

At all times pertinent hereto, counsel repeatedly consulted with Mr. Calhoun's family. At no time was King Ayettey Zubaidah present during these discussions. Subsequently, on July 2, 2009, Judge James Burge found Mr. Calhoun guilty of all charges and referred him for sentencing.

On or about July 17, 2009 I received correspondence from King Ayettey Zubaidah stating that he and his organization, STAND, INC. represented Mr. Calhoun and his family. The correspondence accused me of verbally abusing my client and his mother. Additionally, Mr. Zubaidah quoted and attempted to apply Disciplinary Rule 7-102 and Ethical Consideration 7-10. Mr. Zubaidah stated that I had made several statements and/or promises regarding the outcome of the case, even though said quotes and promises were inaccurate or at best, taken out of context.

Further, Mr. Zubaidah forwarded this letter to the Disciplinary Counsel in Columbus, Ohio seeking to have disciplinary action taken against me for his erroneous attempt in applying law to the case at hand. Upon reviewing the letter, I began an investigation into the company known as Stand, Inc. and Mr. Zubaidah. I subsequently learned that he was formally known as Jerry McGee and that Mr. McGee has filed several lawsuits against agencies in Lorain County, and has a prior felony record.

I then presented the letter to Judge Burge who presided over the case, who informed me that I should discuss this matter with my client's family. As such, I spoke to Terry Blackburn, the mother of my client, and questioned whether or not she was being represented by Mr. Zubaidah. She stated she was, and I advised her that he was not an attorney and incapable of providing legal advice.

Shortly thereafter, Mrs. Blackburn requested that I pay for and obtain a complete copy of the trial transcript. I informed her that I was appointed counsel, and that pursuant to said appointment I was unwilling to pay for the transcript from my own funds, but that I would file a motion with the court asking for a copy of the transcript at state's cost. I did so due to the fear that she would attempt further allegations of deficiency in my representation of her son.

On or about July 21, 2009, I received a second letter from Mr. Zubaidah, a.k.a. Stand, Inc. informing me that I was "covering my own ass" when I told Mr. Blackburn that I would attempt to obtain a copy. This is somewhat accurate as I informed Mrs. Blackburn that I would do what I could because Stand, Inc., had threatened to take me to the Disciplinary Counsel should I fail to do so.

Mr. Zubaidah's letter again quoted ethical considerations and disciplinary rules and attempted to apply them to misstated and/or erroneous facts. Subsequently, I filed a Motion for Transcripts, and Judge Burge denied said motion.

In the weeks that followed, I discovered that Mr. Zubaidah had alleged violations by other attorneys in unrelated cases, and had written letters to the Disciplinary Counsel in regard to those matters as well. Pursuant to my discoveries, I learned that he had advised other clients, against their attorneys' advice, resulting in long periods of incarceration of the defendants when the defendants followed Mr. Zubaidah's advice, rather than their own attorney's.

Further, on or about Aug 20, 2009, I was present in the prisoner holding cell in the basement of the Lorain County Common Pleas Courthouse speaking to another client when I witnessed Mr. Zubaidah enter the holding cell and begin dialogues with several other defendants present in the cell. Mr. Zubaidah discussed two of the defendants' cases with them and then left. Only attorneys, probation officers, prisoners, and sheriff deputies are to be permitted in the holding cell area.

It is clear, that based upon these actions by Mr. Zubaidah, that he intends to practice law without being an attorney, and that he willfully does so without abatement. I have also learned from another client that Mr. Zubaidah requested she retain Stand, Inc. in a Children's Services custody case because he promised to get her children back for her, even though the agency had taken custody of said minor children. Said client asked to remain anonymous but I feel this further shows Mr. Zubaidah willingness to act as a lawyer without having a license to practice.

Therefore, based upon these actions, and Mr. Zubaidah constant presence at court speaking to clients and advising them contrary to their attorney's advice, I ask that the Lorain County Bar Association investigate Mr. Zubaidah, and order him to cease and desist all unauthorized practice of law actions.

I would also ask that this matter be forwarded to the Supreme Court of Ohio's Disciplinary Counsel so they can investigate Mr. Zubaidah's actions and accordingly hold him responsible for any wrong-doing.

If you have any further questions, please contact my office at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,

Re: Unauthorized Practice of Law claim
Stand, Inc./King Ayettey Zubaidah

Lorain, OH 44052

This letter is to serve as supplementary information for the investigation by the Lorain County Bar Association's Committee on the Unauthorized Practice of Law into the actions of an individual known as King Ayettey Zubaidah.

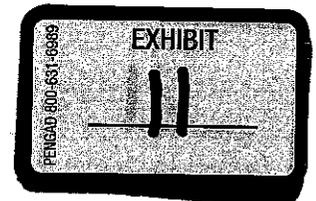

On September 15, 2009, I was in Common Pleas Court with my client, Mr. Gary Daniels, for a criminal pretrial. Afterwards, I personally witnessed Mr. Zubaidah speaking to Mr. Daniels in the hallway. According to my client, Mr. Zubaidah requested information on the pending case, and discussed an appellate issue that my client claims existed from a prior conviction. Further, my client informed me that Mr. Zubaidah stated that he was willing to assist my client with the appellate process and his current case.

If you have any further questions, please contact my office at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,

David W. Nehr

Dear Attorney Hall and Attorney Pincura:

RE: Stand, Inc. (aka King Ayettey Zubaidah)

Confirming our conversations, here is my requested report concerning my interactions with the above named party/entity.

State v. Eric White 08CR077119 - (Attached Exhibit A)
(Member of Stand, Inc.)

The undersigned was appointed to represent Mr. White on February 13, 2009. Mr. White is charged with Felonious Assault and a five-year "drive by shooting" firearm specification. Mr. White's prior counsel James Dorman had to withdraw due to a conflict based upon activities that Mr. White and or his family wanted to pursue during his case. After my appointment, Gail White (Eric's mother) asked to meet and discuss Eric's case at my office. I was not aware of Stand's involvement. On the morning of Saturday July 11, 2009 Mrs. White appeared at my office accompanied by Mr. Zubaidah. Gail White is a contractual member of Stand, Inc. (Attached Exhibit B) I was familiar with Mr. Zubaidah and his "personal representative capacity" due to my representation of Isaiah S. Harris at trial on May 14, 2009, which will be discussed infra.

Mrs. White in our meeting, as she did with Mr. Dorman, inquired and advocated pursuing avenues/defenses of Eric that were unlawful and prohibited by our rules of conduct, including but not limited to introducing false documents to create an alibi, and the insinuation that the key witness could be bribed. Although Mr. Zubaidah was present, I cannot state he created, encouraged, nor actually participated in Mrs. White's advocacy to me of said "defenses". When Mrs. White was finished, I made it clear that I was the lawyer, and that I was going to decide with Eric what Eric's defense would be at trial. I believe my directness with Mrs. White and Mr. Zubaidah strained my relationship with my client, as prior to this date, I had no problems with him.

After this meeting, it became clearer and clearer to me based upon numerous discussions at pre-trials and hearings with Mr. White that he was still being counseled by Mr. Zubaidah. Although Mr. Zubaidah expressly states he is "not an attorney", he is inherently providing legal advice. On December 3, 2009, the day before a critical pre-trial in Eric's case in which we were to set a trial date as the State again rejected Mr. White's plea offer, I received attached Exhibit C (e-mail and letter from Mr. Zubaidah) His letter cites law, ethical canons, and "comparative" cases. Although not relevant for the purposes of this letter, a cursory examination of his citations, comparisons, and analysis, demonstrate a significant ignorance of the relevant issues in Mr. White's case.

Due to Mr. Zubaidah's interference with my representation of Eric White, I filed a Motion to Withdraw and said hearing took place on December 4, 2009. (Attached Exhibit D- Complete hearing transcript attached with relevant portions highlighted-including an on the record statement from Mr. Zubaidah)

State v. Isaiah S. Harris 08CR075721, 08CR076357, 08CR077230
(Member of Stand, Inc.)

Isaiah S. Harris is/was a member of Stand, Inc. The undersigned was appointed to represent Defendant in the above captioned cases on May 23, 2008, September 11, 2008, and December 30, 2008 respectively. Over my objection, the Court consolidated all three of Mr. Harris's cases for trial due to defendant's demand for an "instant trial" on all charges. On March 1, 2009 I drafted my client a very aggressive letter (attached Exhibit E) to address several accusations and issues raised by my client that were interfering with his defense¹. I have attached the letter in its entirety as it explains some of his procedural history, the seriousness of the charges, and my analysis of his case.

I was not aware Mr. Zubaidah was counseling Mr. Harris nor advising him about what "I should be doing and not doing" until Judge Rothgery provided me with attached Exhibit F. (Zubaidah letter to Judge Rothgery) The letter by Mr. Zubaidah to Judge Rothgery demonstrated a complete and total disregard of the undisputed facts that lead to Mr. Harris's charges. For instance, Mr. Harris completely confessed to many of the crimes he was charged with in jail phone calls to the victim, yet Mr. Zubaidah encouraged Mr. Harris to proceed to trial and deny any responsibility for the offenses. As stated in said letter, Mr. Zubaidah believed the acts of Mr. Harris were nothing more than "intoxicated love emotions", and "not being able to handle the intoxicated addiction for each others love". Zubaidah then asserts Mr. Harris is not guilty of anything but "loving Iesha too much", and that neither the victim nor Mr. Harris is "more guilty than the other".

Prior to trial, the Court indicated the defendant would receive a three year concurrent prison term, (minimum sentence) in exchange for a guilty plea in all three case. On the day of trial, the offer was four years. Defendant Harris turned down said offer over my strenuous attempts to convince him otherwise.

During trial, (May 14, 2009) Mr. Zubaidah was present and continued to encourage Mr. Harris to contest the charges in direct contrast to my legal advice. During a break early in the trial, the Court expressly stated its concern about Mr. Harris's decision to proceed and was concerned if there was a communication problem between client and counsel. (See attached Exhibit G) The Court provided the undersigned with yet another opportunity to again attempt to convince Mr. Harris of the benefit of accepting a plea/sentencing deal. The Court allowed counsel to involve Mr. Harris's father Harold Harris, who did everything possible to assist me in convincing his son that he was making a monumental error in proceeding. Harold Harris was present during trial and had also heard Isaiah's confession to most of the charges. Unfortunately Mr. Zubaidah was also present and continued to encourage Isaiah to proceed notwithstanding the abundance of evidence that the State was eliciting and presenting during their case in chief. Thereafter Harold Harris and Mr. Zubaidah had a heated exchange in Court due to the belief of Harold Harris that Mr. Zubaidah was "assisting in the brainwashing of my son". The "communication problem" between Isaiah Harris and counsel, i.e., Isaiah's refusal to listen to counsel, was absolutely, positively, and unequivocally exacerbated, encouraged and endorsed by Mr. Zubaidah.

Mr. Zubaidah's "legal system guidance" to his "client" Mr. Harris proved to be catastrophic as Mr. Harris was found guilty of several charges and sentenced to an aggregate prison term of 23 ½ years, i.e., 20 ½ more years than if he would have taken my advice to accept the plea/sentencing deal offered by the State prior to trial and approved by the Court.

In closing, I originally believed Mr. Zubaidah had good intentions. Although Mr. Zubaidah repeatedly states he is "not a lawyer and does not practice law", it is inherently clear that he is not only giving his clients legal advice, but he is actually giving them incompetent, horrific legal advice, in direct contrast to their appointed lawyers. His contracts expressly state his organization, Stand, Inc., will be assisting in the judicial system; clients are "members", and Mr. Zubaidah is their representative.

Mr. Zubaidah's continued willingness to placate and appease his "clients" by providing them with non-relevant criminal law, advice and "guidance through the justice system"; feeding into, encouraging and aiding and abetting their sometimes outright delusional and or irrationally skewed view of their cases and the legal system, while simultaneously ignoring overwhelming evidence and the legal advice given to them by their lawyers, combined with a new and growing arrogance to assume lawyers handling his "client's" cases are "sub-par, incompetent, and unethical" without a rationale basis for such an opinion, interferes with my ability to defend Mr. Zubaidah's "clients", and more importantly my clients.

Although Mr. Zubaidah's organization is an acronym for "Striving Towards A New Day", I submit it would be more appropriately referred to as "Striving Towards ANother Disaster".

Dear J. Anthony Rich,

I've made several requests to the White family to be patient with you concerning Eric White's unlawful, inhumane, and unfair treatment. Another two months has passed and Eric is still incarcerated. Eric has been denied his rights to DUE PROCESS of LAW: A fundamental, constitutional guarantee that all legal proceedings will be fair and that one will be given notice of the proceedings and an opportunity to be heard before the government acts to take away one's life, liberty, or property. Also, a constitutional guarantee that a law shall not be unreasonable, Arbitrary, or capricious.

With that being said Mr. J Anthony Rich, you have been appointed to see that Eric White's liberty does not be violated? CANON 6: EC 6-1 Because of his vital role in the legal process, a lawyer should act with competence and proper care in representing clients. He should strive to become and remain proficient in his practice and should accept employment only in matters which he is or intends to become competent to handle.

On 09/22/2009 I wrote a letter to the Honorable Judge Miraldi comparing the prosecution unfair and partial treatment with other citizens with the same or similar charges as Eric White's. After speaking with you and your agreeing that you felt that Eric was also being treated unfairly I felt that you would put forth some effort to restore Eric's faith of the judicial system.

CANON 6: EC 6-4 Having undertaken representation, a lawyer should use proper care to safeguard the interest of his client. If a lawyer has accepted employment in a matter beyond his competence but in which he expected to become competent, he should diligently undertake the work and study necessary to qualify himself. In addition to being qualified to handle a particular matter, his obligation to his client requires him to prepare adequately for and give appropriate attention to his legal work.

I went out and visited Eric on 12/02/2009. During our conversation Eric informed me that you have only come to visit and talk with him one time since his incarceration of thirteen months. We (the family and I), don't think those are actions of a lawyer being competent. Eric's views of his case and concerns of his innocence should be greatly and humbly of priority to you since you are getting paid to protect his freedom.

Again! I am sending more comparative cases to you, Judge Miraldi, the Prosecutors office, and the U.S. Department of Justice/Civil Rights Division. Hopefully this will motivate someone to pursue taking some positive action on Eric White's behalf which has never been in any trouble before, a 22 year old American citizen, high school graduate, and has cooperated with the judicial system whole heartily through out this horrific event causing his incarceration.

Here are two comparative cases. Case # 09CR077909, Judge Miraldi Court – OHIO vs. ORTIZ. Filed on 03/26/09. CONVEYANCE OF DRUGS OF ABUSE ONTO THE GROUNDS OF A SPECIFIED GOVERNMENT FACILITY, 2929.36(A) (2), F-3; HAVING WEAPONS WHILE DIABILITY, 2923.13(A)(3), F-3; CARRYING CONCEALED WEAPONS, 2923.12(A)(2), F-4; POSSESSION OF DRUGS, 2925.11(A), F-5; DRUG PARAPHERNALIA, 2925.14(C)(1), M-4 – BOND SET AT $15,000 CASH SURETY BOND POSTED BY ABC BAIL BONDING. BAILED.

Case # 09CR078236 OHIO vs. JONES. Judge Ewers Court- Filed on 05/15/2009. ILLEGAL CONVEYANCE OF WEAPONS OF PROHITED ITEMS ONTO GROUNDS OF DETENTION FACILITY OR INSTUTION CRB 0901485A- POSSESION OF DRUGS- MARIJUANA; DRUG PARAPHERNALIA TRD 0902349- DUS BOND SET AT $2,500 CASH. SURETY BOND POSTED BT T BONDS. BAILED.

I have many more unfair & partial comparative cases. I would hope by these two alone I have proven that Eric White at least deserves bond be set equally if not less than the two people I have compared his case with to free him until his case is resolved. All we (Eric's family and I) are requesting is that he be given just as a fair chance as others of similar charges.

Last but not least I would like to address the responsibility of the Prosecutor. CODES OF JUDICIAL CONDUCT EC7-13: The responsibility of a public prosecutor differs from that of the usual advocate; his duty is to seek justice, not merely to convict. This special duty exists because: (1) the prosecutor represents the sovereign and therefore should use restraint in the discretionary exercise of governmental powers, such as in the selection of cases to prosecute. (3) In our system of criminal justice the accused is to be given the benefit of all reasonable doubts.

STAND (Striving Towards A New Day!) only hope and mission is to see that every citizens of America is given equal and fair treatment regardless of what a persons race, creed, color, and political affiliation is. If we all work together more positive actions can be shared from our labor.

I have enclosed a copy of the letter that I sent 09/22/09 to Honorable Judge James Miraldi to increase your scope of what has already occurred.

Respectfully,
King Ayettey Zubaidah

Dear Honorable Judge Miraldi,

My name is King Ayettey Zubaidah; I'm the CEO/President of the new grassroots organization called Stand Inc. (Striving Towards A New Day!). I hope that my letter find you in the best of health and spirit. I am a long time friend of the White family and have known Eric well enough to bare wittiness to his character.

As some people do, Eric has found himself in some serious trouble. Eric's bond was set at $250,000 (Two hundred fifty thousand dollars) for felonious assault F-2 on 11/07/2008. Eric's bond was modified on 01/02/2009 to the amount of 100,000 (One hundred thousand). Eric still sits in the County jail today.

This is Eric first time being in any trouble of this magnitude and by me setting in the court rooms regularly I find it to be unfair and partial treatment towards Eric for whatever reasons that prosecution find justifiable. Stand Inc. does not act as a lawyer and we are not qualified to practice law. What Stand Inc. does do, is compare cases with other cases to see if we have questionable reasons for unfair and partial treatment against one person verses another.

Here is a case that I'm comparing Eric D. White case with. Cory A Briggs, - Patfield, case # 08CR076237. CRA 0801915- Felonious Assault, CRA 0801916- Felonious Assault, & CRA 0801917- Felonious Assault all F-2. Aggravated riot, F-4, Bond set at $25,000 (Twenty-five thousand dollars) on 07/02/2008. On 07/23/2008 defendant fail to appear this date in a timely fashion. Bond continued. Cory has remained free for a total of fourteen (14) months.

Honorable Judge Miraldi, Eric White turned himself in willing when he heard on the streets that there may have been a warrant out for his arrest. Eric had made plans to go to the service before serious trouble lifted its ugly head. After speaking with his distraught mother Gail White, his plans still remains the same if he could make bond.

My request to you Sir would be that Eric D. White be granted the same bond as Cory A Briggs- Patfield because Mr. Eric D. White has not had his freedom for ten (10) months and has not had the privilege of having his bond continued as Cory A Briggs- Patfield had.

Dear Judge Christopher Rothgery,

Attached is a signed membership form stating Isaiah S. Harris agreement for Stand Inc.'s support in his involvement with the judicial system. I King Ayetey Zubaidah Stand Inc.'s CEO/ President have known Isaiah's family long before his birth. My letter to you is to support the character of Isaiah Harris.

Isaiah is a good young man and he love's and supports his family in more ways than financially. He's the proud father of three children which he fathered out of oblivious love he has for their mother.

I've spoken in depth with Isaiah on more than one occasion concerning his intoxicated love emotions concerning Keisha. I'm sure that feeling are of mutual concern on her part in the whirlpool love affair as Isaiah's. Both of them are no-more guilty than the other in not being able to handle the intoxicated addiction for each others love.

Isaiah is only guilty of loving Ieisha too much. Regardless of his extreme love for Keisha he wouldn't force her to have sex with him or be a burglar where his three children resided.

When Isaiah grandfather passed on October 7, 2008, Ieisha and Isaiah only interacted in the best interest of their children. Isaiah maternal grandparent's has-been ill for at least five years. Isaiah is their only maternal grandchild and they have a special and admirable bond. He had been residing with them helping with his grandfather until he passed.

With the employment market being the way it is, Isaiah was working through temporary services when they found available work. His grandparents would also compensate him for homecare services he would provide freely. Them being his grandparents and knowing his employment situation and him having the three great grandchildren, they where willing to pitch in as only loving family would do.

The Harris grandparents would love when Keisha would bring by the great grandchildren to see them. That made it hard for Isaiah and Keisha to control their uncontrollable passion that they have for each other. When I point at Isaiah, three fingers point back at me. I thank GOD that I'm somewhat in control of my loving emotions for years.

I'm sure with Stand Inc.'s supervision that we'll be able to help this loving couple learn to control their scorn emotions. The children are small yet and if you look into the case, as I know you will, you will see that it's a relationship worth salvaging. Not only Isaiah regrets allowing this situation to get out of hand, so does Keisha.

Respectfully,

King Ayettey Zubaidah

Ms. Motylewski
Lorain County Bar Association

Dear Ms. Motylewski,

Would you kindly forward this to Attorney Pincura who I understand chairs the committee on the unauthorized practice of law.

I am enclosing a certified letter I received from an individual who calls himself King Ayettey Zubaidah. I must ask the bar association to determine whether he is engaging in the unauthorized practice of law. The case in question is State of Ohio v. Corey Bason, Case # 10CR080062. I have accommodated King Zubaidah on a number of occasions and of course he has been welcome to observe any proceeding in our courtroom as it is open to the public. However, it has come to my attention more than once that he has been advising criminal defendants or their family members and interfering with the advice of the defendant's counsel. I understand that those with first hand knowledge may already be taking appropriate action with the bar association.

In this case, King Zubaidah begins his letter to me indicating that he is "petitioning the court on behalf of Corey A. Bason." That sounds like the defendant Bason is Zubaidah's client. Defendant Bason was first represented by J. Anthony Rich who filed a motion to withdraw allegedly due to issues with King Zubaidah interfering in his representation of Mr. Bason. That was rendered moot when two days before the hearing on the motion to withdraw, Attorney Jack Bradley entered an appearance on behalf of the defendant.

Defendant Bason's bond for this F-1 rape was set by the Lorain Municipal Court at $1,000,000. That bond has not been changed. In the meantime, I reduced bond in another rape charge two years earlier with an entirely different set of facts, risks, ties to the community factor, etc. King Zubaidah is now claiming that I am required to give his "client" the same bond. King Zubaidah has notified the state bar association of what he calls a violation of the defendant's rights to due process.

As an aside, I just learned that on Nov. 22, 2010 Attorney Bradley filed a request to withdraw from the case. I will determine whether King Zubaidah is a factor in that matter as well. The next hearing in that case is set for Dec. 17th.

King Zubaidah has been warned before not to practice law or interfere with counsel. Please investigate this matter and take appropriate actions. If you need anything additional from me, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

James L. Miraldi, Judge

Honorable Judge James Miraldi
Lorain County Justice Center
225 Court Street, Rm. # 708
Elyria, OH. 44035

OHIO VS BASON Case # 10CR080062

Dear Judge Miraldi,

I am petitioning the court on behalf of Corey A. Bason for discriminatory actions against him for the setting of his bond so high. I will show a factual comparison with another citizen of Lorain County of very, very similar if not the same charges.

COREY A. BASON: INDICTMENT FOR RAPE, 2907.02(A)(1)(B), F-1 GROSS SEXUAL IMPOSTION, 2907.05(A)(4), F-3

CHRISTOPHER HUFF: INDICTMENT FOR RAPE, 2907.02(A)(2), F-1; SEXUAL BATTERY, 2907.03 (A)(2), F-3; GROSS SEXUAL IMPOSTION, 2907.05 (A)(1), F-4

03/01/2010: Corey A. Bason bond is set at $1,000,000 (one million dollars) CASH BOND. BOND NOT POSTED. COMMITTED.

10/05/2007: Christopher Huff bond is set at $5000 CASH OR SECURITY AND $5000 PERSONAL. BOND POSTED: $5000 SURETY BOND POSTED BY JC BAIL BONDING. $5000 PERSONAL BOND POSTED BY DEFT.

Corey A. Bason remains in the Lorain County jail for a total of eight months waiting to prove his being innocent of his alleged crime.

Christopher Huff was released on a much, much lower bond the same day of his alleged crime. Christopher Huff's case came before you 10/05/2007 and he has remained FREE for three days short of three years to fight his case.

Corey A. Bason's constitutional rights to Due Process are being violated. A fundamental, constitutional guarantee that all legal proceedings will be fair and that one will be given notice of the proceedings and an opportunity to be heard before the government acts to take away one's life, liberty, or property. Also, a constitutional guarantee that a law shall not be unreasonable, Arbitrary, or capricious

Honorable Judge Miraldi you took an oath under the CODE OF JUDICIAL CONDUCT to uphold these Constitutional rights that all proceedings would/will be fair. Canon 2 – A Judge Shall Respect and Comply with the Law and Shall Act at all Times in a Manner that Promotes Public Confidence in the Integrity and Impartiality of the Judiciary.

In closing would you PLEASE consider the same if not an equal bond for Corey A. Bason that Christopher Huff has received.

Respectfully,

King Ayettey Zubaidah

RE: Unauthorized practice of law

Dear Mr. King:

Please be advised that I am the chairperson of the Lorain County Bar Association's Unauthorized Practice of Law Section. A number of attorneys have called my attention to your continuing conduct at the Justice Center, 225 Court Street, Elyria, Ohio 44035. Your advising or counseling people in criminal matters currently pending before the court constitutes the unauthorized practice of law and as such, is prohibited. See Cleveland Bar Assn. V. Barron (2005), 106 Ohio State 3rd 259.

Under authority of the Unauthorized Practice of Law Section of the Rules Governing The Courts of Ohio I am demanding you immediately cease and desist your unlawful conduct. If you continue a complaint may be filed against you and civil penalties may be imposed up to $10,000.00 per offense along with the cost of the action. GOV. BAR R. VII , Section 8.

Chairperson/Committee of the Unauthorized Practice of Law

Dear Mr. John D. Pincura,

I would like to start by thanking you for addressing me by my correct name King Ayettey Zubaidah since we have done business in the past under a formerly addressed name Gerald McGee. I appreciated your services then for myself and pervious other family members.

Your letter dated December 31, 2009 is accusatory. I am being accused of unauthorized practice of law. Even with me finding it flattering to be considered in a class of your peers, I find it far from being the truth. I am not an attorney! And I do not and have not practiced law.

The Society in which I am the CEO/President called STAND (Striving Towards A New Day!) is a non-profit grassroots society assembled in October 16, 2007 to help in leveling the playing field in the educational, employment, & judicial system towards citizens of America. We at STAND assist our members that request our services. STAND is a non-profit Society and only except donation if they are offered. STAND does not solicit donations.

Since you are demanding immediately cease and desist of alleged unlawful conduct of me I would like full disclosure of the number and names of attorneys of which you claim made these allegations against STAND/CEO/President, King Ayettey Zubaidah. If the names of your complain tiffs are not made known, STAND will find this letter has no merit.

Sincerely,

King Ayettey Zubaidah/CEO/President

AFFIDAVIT

I, D. Chris Cook, being first duly sworn according to law, do hereby depose and state as follows:

1. I am over the age of 18.
2. I am Bar Counsel for the Lorain County Bar Association, Inc.
3. In my capacity as Bar Counsel, I was contacted by Attorney John Pincura, the Chair of the Unauthorized Practice of Law Committee of the Lorain County Bar Association, regarding allegations of unauthorized practice of law by King Ayettey Zubaidah and STAND, Inc.
4. Attorney Pincura forwarded his file to me regarding the allegations and on July 20, 2010, I contacted Mr. Zubaidah to arrange a meeting to discuss an amicable resolution to this matter and followed up my discussion with a letter to Mr. Zubaidah at his organization.
5. I received a reply from King Ayettey Zubaidah dated July 24, 2010, indicating his interest and that of "a few of STAND'S board members" to meet with me to discuss the allegations set forth against him and STAND.
6. On August 11, 2010, I met with King Zubaidah and two Board members of STAND at my offices. During that meeting, I advised those present of the complaints against them and respectfully requested that they enter into an agreement with the Lorain County Bar Association to cease and desist engaging in the authorized practice of law.
7. King Zubaidah and the two Board members from STAND categorically rejected all efforts to reach an amicable resolution by way of a cease and desist agreement.
